

Two day workshop module - Reproductive and Sexual Health Target population – Community Health Workers and Female volunteers

Day One Day T		y Tv	vo
1.		luctive Health (60 min)	6.	Pregnancy (part two) (90 min)
	a.	Case Study #1		f. Danger Sign of Pregnancy
	b.	Introduction		i. Case Study #4
	C.	Importance		ii. Anemia
2.	Adoles	cent Health (45 min)		iii. Hypertension
	a.	Definition		iv. Bleeding during pregnancy
	b.	Physical changes		v. Abortion
	C.	Psychological changes		vi. Others
	d.	Conflict and coping		g. Labour and its complications mechanism		h. Peuperium - Mother and child care Discussion #1		i. Immunization
3.		ion for Young Adults	7.	, , ,
	(90 mii			a. Birth Spacing (60 min)
	a.	Case Study #2		i. Case Study #5
	b.	Introduction		ii. Need and Importance
	c.	Importance		b. Birth Limiting (60 min)
		Discussion #2		i. Case Study #6
4.	•	ge Marriage (90 min)		ii. Need and Importance
	a.			Discussion #5
	b.	Introduction		c. Available options for Contraception
	C.	Importance		i. Female (90 min)
	d.	Society/Culture/Religion		List of Temporary
	e.	Problems and Solution		Methods
-	D	Discussion #3		2. Oral Pills
5.	_	ncy (part one) (90 min)		3. Depo – Provera
	a.	3		4. Norplant5. IUCD
		Changes during Pregnancy Care of a Pregnant women		6. Others (including
	c. d.	Pregnancy Check-ups		abortion) Government of Nepal and		7. Permanent Method
	e.	services provided for		ii. Male (30 min)
		pregnancy		1. Temporary Methods
		Discussion #4		Permanent Methods
		D1304331011 πτ		iii. Natural methods of Contraception
				iii. Watarai methous of Contraception

What does this mean?

Case Study - Six individual cases on various situtaion emulating real life scenarios, related to the topic and associated to the educaitonal and cultural level of target population

Discussion – Five discussion with short (15-20 minutes) group activities related to the subject.

Time - approximately 6 hours each day – Total 12 hours course

Module developed by – Nidan Team

Dr Aditi Giri, Dr Anish Mali, Dr Prasana Khatiwoda, and Dr Prashant Khatiwada.