The whole family suffers diseases, Jesica and Jose are overweight, Jose Guadalupe has flatfoot, Citlali has respiratory diseases and the smallest kid Karmen has a heart murmur. They live in a small house made of trash and the floor its only dirt. Their biggest dream is having a better house.

Judith Rodriguez and Francisco Flores

A family of five: Judith, Francisco and their 3 children: Atziri of 8, Jennifer of 4 and David of 3 years old. Their only income is $210 USD per month that Francisco earns working as a stonemason. They live in a little room made of wood, metal sheet roofing and dirt floor. They dream of having a good home.

THE FAMILIES

Maria de la Luz and Carlos Flores

Maria and Carlos are a very young couple, Maria is 20 years old, and Carlos is 23 years old, they have two kids: Cristina is the oldest one she is 7 years old, Raul is the youngest, he is one year old. Their weekly budget is about $210 USD per month.

Carlos work as a car washer in the streets. The income isn't always the same, the budget it's an average. The walls of their home are made of half-life wood, the roof its Metal sheet and the floor is dirt and dust. The biggest dream they have as a family is having their own house.

Gabriela Rojas and Ricardo Herrera

Gabriela and Ricardo have four children: Mónica, Rodolfo, Edgar, and Kimberlin. As a family, they have low incomes from their construction jobs and scarce sales, amounting to an average of $630 USD per month. Gabriela and Monica stay home to take care of the younger children, limiting their job and education opportunities. They live in a house with two rooms. The walls are made of plywood and cardboard scraps, as well as their roof. Under their feet, they have dirt floor. In spite of the adversities, they dream of having their own house with a green yard to play in.

Rubi Sención and Jose Alfredo Andrade

Rubi and Alfredo are both 18 years old, completed 9th grade, and they have a 2 year old baby boy named Jose Alfredo. Alfredo works in the manufacturing industry, with a job that pays $360 USD each month. This income helps them as they live in a dirt-floor room made of pallets, boards, and asbestos sheets as roof. Fortunately, all three are healthy, but each day they strive to overcome their situation. Their family's dream is to continue their education up to a college degree to have better opportunities.

Flor Alvarez and Eduardo Sandoval

Eduardo, 20 years old, and Flor, 21, have three children, from ages 1 to 5. As Flor takes care of their children at home, Eduardo brings in an average income of $330 USD per month as a construction worker. Currently they live in a single-room house made of plywood walls, dirt floor, and scraps of materials as their roof. Their biggest accomplishment would be to own the land plot where they live in.

Rosa Quintan and Isafas Chavez

Isafas, 31, and Rosa, 34, have two children: Joanna Elizabeth born in 2002, and Juan José, born two years later. As a family, they face constant challenges, since Rosa has leukemia, their son has Down's syndrome, and their daughter requires psychological help. Isafas earns $485 USD per month to satisfy his family's needs, working in construction. They live in a dirt floor room, with cardboard, plastic, and wood scraps that make their walls and roof. Their dream is to own the plot they live in and build their own home.

THE FAMILIES

Benito Herrera and Aniel Bautista

Benito and Aniel have two children: 6-year-old Alex and 4-year-old Mayte. Benito sells corn for a living, bringing an income of $240 USD per month. His wife suffers from anemia due to malnutrition, and they all live in a single-room house. Their living conditions are framed by dirt floors, trash walls and scrap roof. Their dream is to have a lasting house of their own.

Noemi Estrada and Oscar Zamora

Noemi and Oscar, 28 and 32 years old respectively, have five children from ages 14 to 3: one girl and four boys. Oscar can't work because he does not have any official documents (birth certificate, educational, etc...), but Noemi works as a housemaid in several houses, earning $660 USD each month, in spite of the anemic condition she suffers. As their family lives in a house with dirt floors and scraps for their walls and roof, Noemi and Oscar dream of giving their children the necessary education and a decent house to live in.
