

Hey guys,

A few months ago, your contributions enabled us open a small bakery for training teen mums in bread-baking.

Five months down the line and these are the results:

- ✓ We have been able to bake and sell 3,600 packets of scones;
- ✓ 4,200 low-cost bread
- ✓ Over 7,000 various sweet-cakes.
- ✓ 3 students have completed short courses in baking
- ✓ 4 more are still attending classes.

On Friday, we received an invitation from a local supermarket to supply our mouth-watering scones to their stores. A big achievement, if you ask me!

But we still need your help:

- ✚ We plan to purchase three bicycles to enable us distribute more products
- ✚ We need to buy an extra proofer to meet the growing demand
- ✚ An extra oven will also make our work easier
- ✚ We plan to buy bulk supplies so we can start saving the profit

Your donation, however small, will definitely cover a huge gap. For instance,

- $10 will enable us purchase 3 extra trays for bread-making;
- $20 will help us acquire a bale of flour;
- $40 will buy a bicycle
- $50 will buy a bag of 50kg sugar
- $100 will meet the cost of training 2 girls in comprehensive baking

GEMINI is very excited about the opportunity to participate in Alive & Learning Project Challenge, a great opportunity to highlight our work in Kenya and raise fund and awareness for our project, Equipping Teen Mothers with Life-skills. Help us achieve our goal of £2000 by August 14th 2009 by making a donation to GEMINI on GlobalGiving.co.uk www.globalgiving.co.uk/1802.

On behalf of all the students, I would like to thank all of you for your continued support. Your feedback on our progress is highly welcome. Keep on writing.

Again, make a small donation so that each one of you will take pride in empowering a girl's life.
