

From the horse's mouth.....

Mary preparing french fries for clients during her training

"I was one of the earlier beneficiaries of the project. I completed several courses: baking, home economics and tailoring. I got employed as an assistant to an upcoming design firm.

"Over 400 adolescent girls give birth EVERY DAY in Kenya and this marks the end of their education.

"Your contribution to GEMINI will prevent more girls from dropping from school and give them a chance to realize their dreams."

-Mary Wambui

"I still remember the excruciating pains during delivery. I developed fistulae and I've been having a hard time managing it.

"I just want to make a passionate appeal to YOU...please, please, please...your contribution to GEMINI's teen mum project will prevent more girls from enduring health complications that accompany teen pregnancy.

"Kindly make that donation...."

-Ruth

Ruth listens keenly during a peer group discussion