

KIKANDWA ENVIRONMENTAL ASSOCIATION

COMMUNITY INNOVATION RESOURCE CENTER

REPORT FOR November 2014

We made it! Yes, we did. We reached our target goal of raising US$9,251 through global giving. We thank Global giving for providing a platform through which we fundraised money to setup a community innovation resource center, a center that is extending ICT to the rural community in Kikandwa Subcounty in Uganda. We believe that our partnership with Global giving has been worthwhile and we wholeheartedly thank our donors for believing in us and entrusting us with their donations. Your donations have

1. Helped 656 smallholder farmers produce more qualitative nutritional food for themselves.
2. Built the capacity of 345 farmers to mitigate and adapt to climate change impact.
3. 85 farmers Learnt to Invests in forest restoration, tree nurseries raising and protection of biodiversity.
4. 65 farmers were trained and empowered to carry out agricultural action research.
5. 30 farmers become computer literate.
6. 2 youth graduated in basic computer application and 12 are yet to graduate early 2015
7. 36 households have received and planted fruit tree seedlings like mango, avocado and jackfruit from a community demonstration site.

This Christmas season of 2014, we have launched campaign to raise US $ 9525 to

1. support more 876 small farmers to produce qualitative nutritional food,
2. build the capacity of more 450 farmers to mitigate and adapt to climate change impact, train more
3. 85 farmers in agricultural action research,
4. Train more 35 farmers to become computer literate,
5. train more 30 youth in basic computer application,
6. pay for rent, internet service provider, allowance for computer lab attendant,
7. Electricity and supplies and acquire at least two more new computers.
