

Education Through Music

2017-2018
Annual Report

Engage. Teach. Motivate.

MESSAGE FROM THE LEADERSHIP

DEAR FRIENDS,

The 2017-2018 school year was one of growth, as Education Through Music (ETM) expanded its footprint to serve 30,000 students in 58 partner schools. As ETM's model reaches more students each year in our efforts to develop successful, well-rounded, and life-long learners, we also continue to affect more schools and communities. ETM's work throughout the school year can be best summarized in three words: Engage. Teach. Motivate.

Engage: When ETM partners with a school, we engage all of its students - including those with special needs - by providing access to comprehensive, sequential music instruction and enrichment.

Teach: Our model is delivered by highly effective music teachers, who are hired, trained and supported by ETM. We provide ongoing, customized professional development to help teachers maximize their impact in the classroom.

Motivate: ETM works with whole school communities, including principals, teachers, and parents, to build music programs that will inspire students today and for years to come. We help schools design music programs that meet the unique needs of their student body.

This year was an amazing time of growth and achievement for ETM in New York City. In 2018, in line with ETM's strategic goals of expansion beyond NYC, long-time Executive Director Katherine Damkohler transitioned to a new role as Director of National Activities.

As we look to 2019, please join us in our work to ensure that all students have access to quality music education.

Sincerely,

Richard Bernstein
Chairman of the Board

Penny Swift
Executive Director

MISSION

Education Through Music (ETM) partners with under-resourced schools to provide music as a core subject for all children, and utilizes music education as a catalyst to improve academic achievement, motivation for school and self-confidence.

VISION

Education Through Music believes:

- Every child deserves access to high-quality music education, taught by qualified and well-trained music teachers.
- Music should support learning in other key areas, including math, science and language arts.
- Engaged parents and school communities are key to the success of students.

“Music is so empowering.

It makes me feel good.”

- ETM Partner School Student

THE ETM MODEL

The Education Through Music model to provide quality music education to all students as a core subject dates back to 1991 when the program was piloted in one school.

ETM's program is rooted in these core beliefs:

- Strong school leadership is key to a successful partnership.
- A great teacher with the right professional development and mentorship is likely to remain in the profession and make a long-lasting impact on the community they serve.
- Professional development for non-music teachers helps promote cross-curricular integration and fosters school environments that value music.
- The music curriculum should be comprehensive, sequential and tied to grade-specific benchmarks.
- Music programs can help boost parental engagement, which in turn strengthens school communities and school achievement.

Partner with principals to develop a sustainable program in their school

- Integrate the music program into the school culture
- Offer professional development to non-music teachers
- Help obtain funding for instruments and equipment
- Equip new music classrooms

Hire qualified music teachers and match them with a partner school

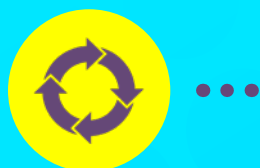

- Find candidates who possess musical expertise and pedagogical skill
- Match teachers with the unique needs of each partner school

Equip teachers with the tools to succeed

- Connect teachers to professional peer network
- Provide professional development geared towards the unique needs of music teachers
- Assign mentors who provide resources and support (e.g., lesson planning, classroom management, performances, observation and feedback, problem solving)
- Provide teachers with standards-aligned benchmarks to inform curricula design
- Support teachers in obtaining certification

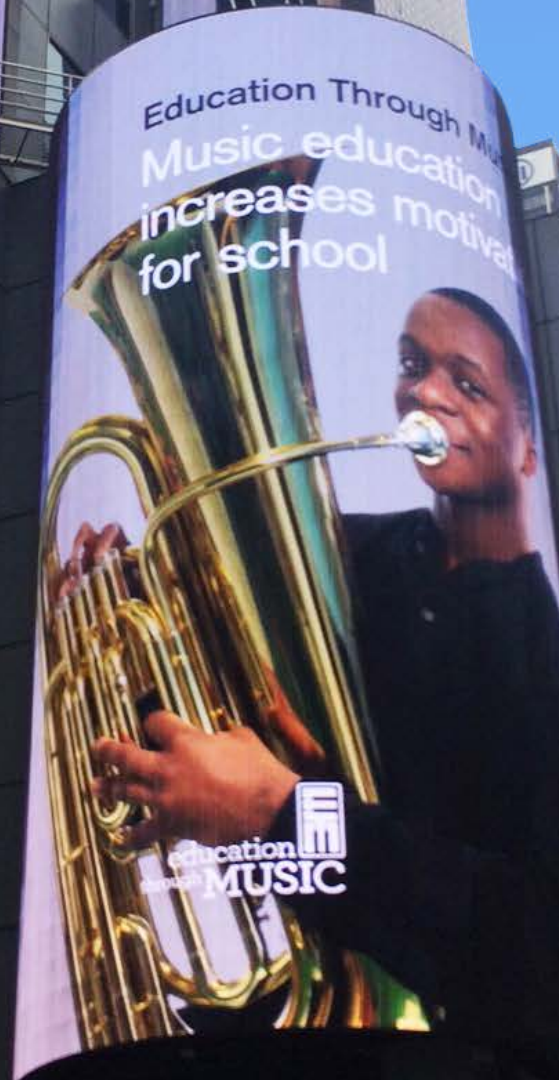

Institute a sustainable program

- Partner schools hire their teacher from ETM
- ETM provides ongoing mentorship and professional development to teachers hired by partner schools

Provide quality music education to ALL students

ETM was featured on Times Square screens for the whole month of March, thanks to Morgan Stanley's Lights on Broadway program.

A year of learning culminated with a vibrant performance by Queens students from P.S. 154 at the 2018 ETM Gala.

Country musicians and CMA executives came out to support ETM for the 2018 Gala, including CMA CEO Sarah Trahern, Kix Brooks, Brad Warren, CMA Foundation Chairman Joe Galante (honoree), Randy Owen and Brett Warren.

Motivating Life-Long Learners

ETM provides music teachers with the tools they need to create opportunities for robust student learning and success. These tools include benchmarks to curricula with state and national standards, classroom supplies and professional development.

*Indicates Director served on the Board for a portion of the 2017-18 Fiscal Year

A student is shown from the chest up, focused on working on a model of a ship's hull. The model is dark blue and has a large, detailed propeller attached to its stern. The student is wearing a dark blue shirt. The background is dark and out of focus, with some blue light visible on the left side. The text is overlaid on the image, with the main quote in white and yellow, and the attribution in white.

how it’s helping me and other people.”
