

Fahamu has a vision of the world where people organise to emancipate themselves from all forms of oppression, recognise their social responsibilities, respect each other's differences, and realise their full potential

What we do

Fahamu uses information and communication technologies as a tool to serve the needs of organisations and social movements that aspire to progressive social change and that promote and protect human rights

Learning for change

Fahamu runs distance learning courses for human rights and civil society organisations using interactive CDROMs and tuition provided via email

Introduction to human rights

Investigating, monitoring and reporting on human rights violations

Advocacy and citizen participation

Using the internet for research and advocacy

Role of the media in the Rwandan Genocide

Campaigning for access to information

Fundraising and resource mobilisation

Leadership and management

Practical financial management for NGOs

JustWrite:
online course on effective writing

Prevention of torture

Conflict resolution

It is quite clear that this approach breaks new ground... The key word describing the response of individuals to the courses is 'empowerment'
