MANI FEST

Once upon a time, there was a little firefly who met a giant named Amazon. He told her a many stories about the sky, the solar system, other peoples, languages, and much more. She showed him all her splendor, her richness, and welcomed him with open arms. Together, they shared knowledge and gradually brought about a remarkable transformation. They built houses, which they called libraries. They planted book trees that bear fruits, people who shine. People who fall in love with reading, who learn and grow. People who are inspired by stories that change the world. People who make more people shine.

VAGA LUME.
KNOWLEDGE
MAKES US FLY.

1. WHAT AND WHERE WE DO IT

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Driven by the desire for a brighter future, Vaga Lume fluttered its wings and expanded in 2023. The two offices in Belém and São Paulo became three, with the opening of the long-dreamed Vaga Lume Manaus. Our network of 89 libraries became 95, and our team welcomed new collaborators.

Growth requires alignment and unity, especially after a pandemic that deepened educational challenges in Brazil and worldwide. Perhaps that is why so numerous meetings marked the year.

The Vaga Lume council met with volunteers in the Carvoeiro community, Barcelos, AM. Representatives from the 22 Brazil's Legal Amazon municipalities participating in Vaga Lume gathered in São Paulo. Partners met with the Vaga Lume youth in the Boa Vista community in Castanhal, PA. Announcing the beginning of a new cycle, the Education team engaged in methodology immersion in Alter do Chão, the site of the first Vaga Lume course, held in 2001. Meetings of mediators, Network educators, youth, and our team reinforced our mission.

In each conversation circle, we explored the essence of Vaga Lume and redefined our approach, always grounded in our unwavering commitment to children. The dissemination of the Vaga Lume Protection Guide reinforced their protection, as well as that of everyone involved in our network.

With the pains of growth came new strengths. Collectively, we rewrote the values that guide us as an organization:

Respect as a Premise
Care that Nurtures
Excellence that Guides
Connections that Strengthen

We ended the year with two wonderful pieces of news: an international donation to establish the Vaga Lume Sustainability Fund and the recognition of being the Best Education NGO in Brazil once again.

Embracing new narratives, we continue to write our exciting adventure: that of the little firefly who fell in love with the giant Amazon! Enjoy the reading!

WHO IS VAGA LUME?

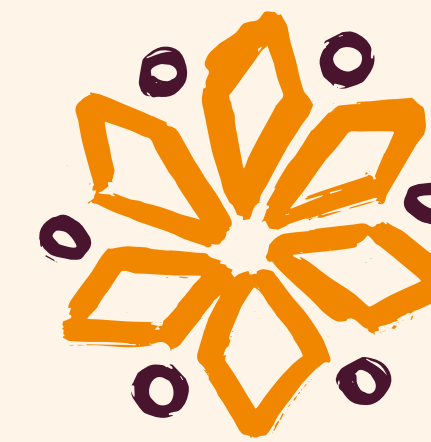

We are a social organization that implements libraries in rural communities in the Brazilian Legal Amazon (Amazônia Legal). We promote access to reading, a right for every child and adolescent.

OUR VALUES

Respect as a premise

A non-negotiable commitment to respect and ethics in relationships with people, territories, and resources.

Connections that strengthen

To promote collaboration and a sense of collectivity, sharing knowledge and learning to strengthen us.

Care that nurtures

To genuinely care for people to nurture our network of care. To support each other's development through listening and dialogue.

Excellence that guides

To do better every day, in constant pursuit of excellence, without letting it paralyze us. It is about investing in quality in service of our purpose.

OUR PURPOSE

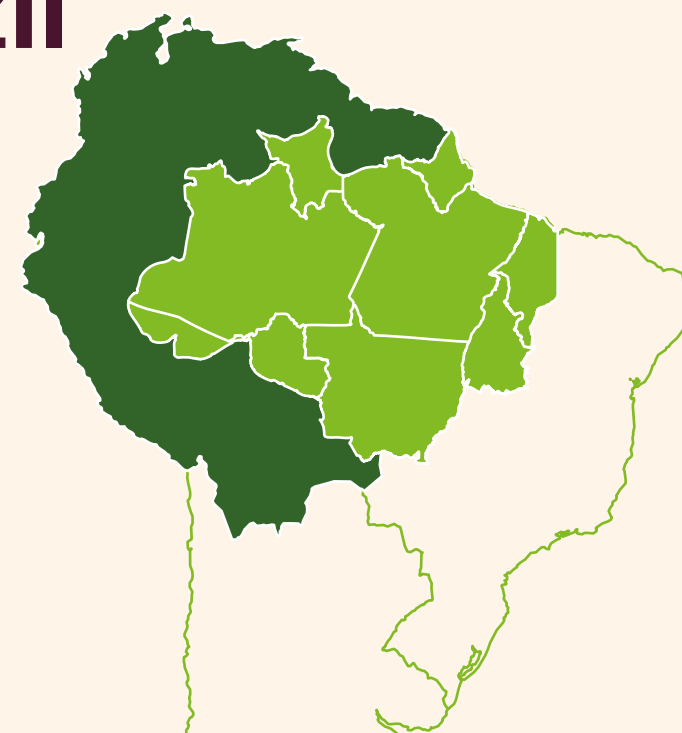

To empower children and young people in rural communities of the Brazilian Legal Amazon by promoting reading and managing community libraries as spaces for sharing knowledge.

COMMUNITIES OVERVIEW

Where are the libraries?

Communities profile

Infrastructure

13%
do not have permanent electricity and 23%

do not have piped water

This means that...

9 out of 10 communities have frequent access to electricity, the primary source being the power line. Regarding access to water, the primary source is artesian wells.

Primary forms of access to communication

Access to mobile phone networks is still difficult for most communities, but internet access is already quite frequent, mainly residential internet.

OUR PURPOSE

Empower children and youth in rural communities in the Brazilian Legal Amazon region by promoting reading and the management of community libraries as a space for sharing knowledge.

ACTIONS AND CONTEXTS

Every child and adolescent has the right to live in a healthy, creative, and affectionate environment, in contact with nature.

At Vaga Lume, we believe that one of the most powerful ways to unite these rights and stimulate the development of children and young people is access to books. Thus, we aim to provide a path to empowerment by encouraging reading and managing libraries in rural communities of the Brazilian Legal Amazon, promoting cultural exchanges through reading, writing, and orality.

The Legal Amazon region has only 13% of Brazil's public libraries and an illiteracy rate of 7.6% among the population aged 15 and over, while in Brazil, the rate is 7%, according to the 2022 Demographic Census, Literacy—Results of the Universe, by IBGE and the website “Amazônia Legal em Dados.” The population also faces a lack of policies to value local culture and forest peoples.

We are talking about a region composed of nine states (Amazonas, Acre, Rondônia, Roraima, Pará, Amapá, Tocantins, Mato Grosso, and part of Maranhão), which occupies 59% of the Brazilian territory and has 29.5 million inhabitants. Data from 2017 from Radar IDH-M, an initiative of the Institute of Applied Economic Research (IPEA), shows that the states of the Brazilian Legal Amazon have a Municipal Human Development Index (MHDI) below 0.750. To better understand, the index measures the quality of life in a place based on education, income, and people's longevity, and the average in the rest of Brazil is 0.778.

We believe that libraries are spaces where exchange is possible and where knowledge can be shared. These spaces are powerful tools for achieving significant changes and sowing bright futures for the children and young people of the Amazon.

HOW WE OPERATE

Learn about our strategy, based on an inside-out movement in five dimensions:

Structure

For a library to function well, it needs a quality and diverse collection of literature. It also requires a physical space to house the books and a welcoming environment that can accommodate children, youth, adults, and mediators.

Training

Reading mediators bring the library to life and give it meaning. They need to be active and trained in the Vaga Lume methodology to do this.

Management Cultural Exchange

The library is a community space. Therefore, community residents and volunteers must be committed to its operation and be responsible for its management.

Local Culture

The library belongs to the community and values local stories, traditions, and culture. Each community is unique, and each library should also reflect this uniqueness.

Cultural exchange among young people broadens the possibilities of reading the world, valuing local cultures, and understanding other realities. It also raises their awareness of social and community engagement.

RECOGNITIONS

Best Education NGO in Brazil

For the third time, we have been elected the Best Education NGO in Brazil by the Best NGOs Award from Instituto Doar. The initiative rewards organizations for excellence in management, governance, financial sustainability, and transparency. For the sixth time, Instituto Doar has recognized us as one of the 100 Best NGOs in Brazil.

Human Rights and Diversity Seal

We have received the Human Rights and Diversity Seal from the São Paulo City Hall for the second time. The initiative recognizes best practices in diversity management and the promotion of human rights in companies, public agencies, and third-sector organizations.

Green Nobel Prize

We were one of the winning organizations in the ESG category of the first edition of the United Earth Amazon Award, which follows the same selection and evaluation criteria as the Nobel Prize.

United Earth is an international organization that recognizes and promotes global environmental leadership and humanitarian excellence. Marcus Nobel, a descendant of Alfred Nobel, chairs it. It focuses global efforts, resources, and programs on an unprecedented challenge: uniting Earth's peoples and nations to build a collective and sustainable future.

The Dot Good

We were listed among the 50 most influential NGOs in Brazil by The Dot Good ranking.

The list is based on governance, innovation, and positive impact criteria.

The award tracks the work of various non-governmental organizations, and the selection for the ranking combines quantitative analyses with qualitative research on the organizations' performance.

“It is an immense joy for Vaga Lume to win this award. We know the individual and collective efforts to build quality education through access to reading.”

Lorena Nery, an Amazonas volunteer, represented all Vaga Lume volunteers at the ceremony.

HIGHLIGHTS IN THE MEDIA

In 2023, we participated in the public debate in over 660 reports that shared our work, presented children's books focused on Black, Indigenous, and Amazonian representations, emphasized the importance of intercultural dialogue, and highlighted the work of our volunteers.

How does volunteering work?

“Being a Vaga Lume volunteer is a combination of actions that bring you well-being. It is sharing something you accept and, because it did you so much good, you want others to accept it too.”

Elma Reis, a volunteer from the Manoelzinho Community in Barreirinhas (MA)

EDUCATIONAL VOLUNTEERS

They are young people up to 17 years old who participate in the library's activities.

COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS

They work within the libraries, conducting reading mediation, supporting space and event management, and working on the five dimensions and the Library Journey.

LOCAL TEAMS AND REPRESENTATIVES

They act as multipliers of the Vaga Lume methodology in communities near their municipalities. They support the articulation of partnerships and the delivery of collections and materials.

In the Carvoeiro community, in Barcelos, Amazonas, different generations come together around books. The young people who visit the library follow the volunteers' example and become reading mediators for the elderly, mothers, and babies.

THIS IS IMPACT.

3. IMPACT

DATA MANAGEMENT AND STRENGTHENING OF LIBRARIES

Data collection and systematization

We annually conduct a monitoring evaluation of community libraries' results. We collect information on structure, number of attendees, book borrowing records, reading mediations, profile and engagement of volunteers, cultural and literary activities, and participation in the Network Program.

These data are collected directly by the volunteers and stored in the Pomar platform, launched in 2022 to systematize all data related to our work at Amazon. Therefore, Pomar is a management and monitoring tool that strengthens library activities.

Within Pomar, data is also watered and managed to assist Vaga Lume in investment and engagement analyses according to the needs of each location. This way, we ensure more transparency in the progress of our work, mapping strengths and challenges, and allowing us to understand how, when, and where to act to improve our work in the Amazon.

Monitoring and development of libraries

Since each library has its particularities and needs, we created the Library Journey to accompany reading spaces from the moment of their implementation (Seed) to the stage of autonomy (Sumaúma).

With the Journey, we seek to improve our management plan, developing a possible field to invest in, promoting activities, and providing subsidies so that the community itself can develop action plans for its library within the spectrum of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities, and threats, according to their realities and maturity time.

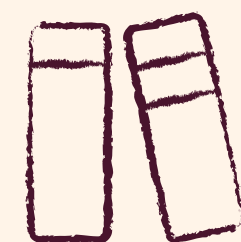

OUR NUMBERS SINCE 2001

Now that we have presented the path traced for data collection, storage, management, and analysis, we bring a quantitative balance of our performance in the Brazilian Legal Amazon.

MAIN ACTIONS OF THE YEAR

Our operating strategy is based on five dimensions: Structure, Training, Management, Local Culture, and Cultural Exchange. Our actions throughout 2023 are tagged with the dimensions they relate to.

Beautification of São Sebastião Library

#STRUCTURE

The residents of the São Sebastião community in Portel (PA) nurtured a dream: to have their own space for the community library, a colorful and spacious place to welcome children and all the people who reside there. In 2022, the headquarters was built, and in 2023, the dream became even more beautiful with the painting of this space. Artist Mama Quilla led a painting workshop and, together with the community, created strokes that represent this territory's local culture and identity, now displayed on the library's walls. The FAR Institute helped both in the construction and the beautification phase of this headquarters, being a great partner in this journey.

Construction of the new headquarters in Menino Deus

#STRUCTURE

Like the São Sebastião community, the volunteers and visitors of the Menino Deus library in Portel (PA) also dreamed of a space dedicated to reading. The community gained its headquarters in partnership with the Institute for Climate and Society (ICS). The first construction phase has already been completed, and now children, young people, and all residents have a more welcoming space for cultural activities and reading meditation.

Collection and furniture

#STRUCTURE

14.652

books distributed in 2023

In addition, we sent 32 bookshelves and 189 mats to the libraries.

We are a reference in curating children's book collections. Quality and diversity are the essential criteria of our selection; our collection consists of literary books (primarily for children and babies) in various formats and themes (children and youth, adult, poetry, comics, graphic novels, novels, short stories, fractured tales, picture books, etc.), featuring representation and authorship from Black, Indigenous, and Northern perspectives, with themes from the region. The books are sent annually to the library network via air, river, and/or land transportation, a logistics process constantly challenging us.

#TRAINING

Our expansion efforts resulted in the past year's highlight: implementing new libraries!

In a logistical and production effort, with the mobilization of many people, we conducted on-site visits, baseline assessments, and the formation of Seeds (libraries in the initial stage). The new libraries benefitted the communities in Castanhal and Santarém, in Pará.

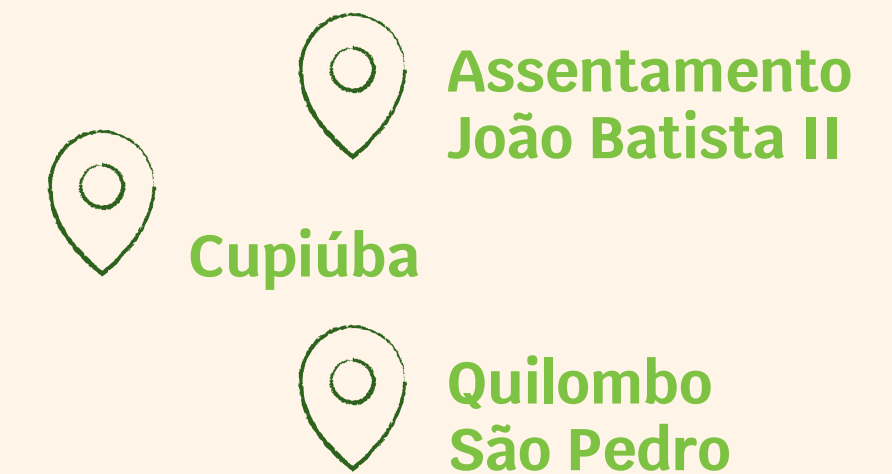

Accessibility

#STRUCTURE

#TRAINING

In 2023, we renovated five libraries to make them accessible to Persons with Disabilities.

In Castanhal (PA), three communities were included:

In Barreirinhas (MA), two communities were included:

In addition to the physical space renovation, we sent to each of these communities a table suitable for wheelchair users that can also be used by other audiences.

Library Monitoring

#MANAGEMENT

We constantly monitor the libraries, whether in person or remotely. Thus, we can support the community management of the spaces, understand the needs of each territory, and support the development of the libraries until they reach autonomy.

31

on-site visits and monitoring

31 trips, over 100 days in the field, and 63 communities visited.

Representatives Meeting 2023

#TRAINING

#MANAGEMENT

We counted on local volunteers who work in the cities and support the articulation with the communities. To strengthen this network in the 22 municipalities where we operate throughout the Brazilian Legal Amazon, we held the 2023 Representatives Meeting in São Paulo. About 40 volunteers plus the Education team – also based in Belém (PA) and Manaus (AM) – gathered for three days of training in Vaga Lume’s methodology and discussions about books and reading for children.

Leticia Santos Canavieira, 43 years old, from Barreirinhas (MA), participated in the 2023 Representatives Meeting and shared her experience:

“Participating in such a moment is a great responsibility and, at the same time, an excellent opportunity to expand our knowledge and exchange experiences with other participants. Upon returning to our cities, the commitment to pass on and multiply what was experienced at the meeting begins.”

#LOCAL CULTURE

We mediated two handcrafted book courses with a total of 50 participants. Two handcrafted books were produced: O sopra da Baleia (The Breath of the Whale) and Oiara.

Local Culture Incentive Project

#LOCAL CULTURE

The Institute for Climate and Society (ICS) and us, with resources from the 2023 community fund, promoted 23 actions in 6 states to support and strengthen rural communities in the Brazilian Legal Amazon in their various cultural expressions, encouraging the resumption of activities promoting books and reading. With these activities, we also fostered debate on the environment, conservation of the Amazon Rainforest, and the role of youth in communities, reflecting on the importance of books and reading to form of more conscious citizens.

Network Program 2023

#CULTURAL EXCHANGE

The Network Program is an initiative of intercultural dialogue that seeks to broaden the possibilities of world reading among young people from community libraries supported by Vaga Lume in the Brazilian Legal Amazon and young people from the city of São Paulo (SP). It is an experience to share knowledge about their identities and territories. The project's methodology aims to reduce distances, break stereotypes, present new world perspectives, and place young people as protagonists in transforming their realities.

In 2023, five cycles of cultural exchanges were carried out between a school/organization in the southeast and a Vaga Lume community/library in the Amazon. Educators from São Paulo visited their exchange partners in the Amazon for days of immersion in the communities. The educators from the Amazon, in turn, went to São Paulo to complete the exchange cycle. With these trips, educators bring young people from multiple realities even closer together. They also participated in training sessions on the environment and climate change, which were later addressed in the weekly workshops of the Network Program in schools, social organizations, and communities.

INSTITUTIONAL

Opening of the office in Manaus (AM)

The new headquarters in the capital city of Manaus is part of our expansion plan. The office is strategic as it brings us even closer to the territory, facilitates the monitoring of libraries, and fosters partnerships in the region.

“Having a team at this significant pole of Amazon is a major step in our growth recovery. Not only does it facilitate the logistics of training and monitoring, but also because of the strength that the city and the state represent in the Amazon context. Furthermore, the possibility of having local female collaborators and volunteers is the fulfillment of an old dream of ours, which is to be diverse in all instances, including the institutional one”

Lia Jamra Tsukumo, Executive Director of Vaga Lume.

Vaga Lume Manaus Dinner

To celebrate the opening of the new headquarters in Manaus, we gathered partners and people who believe in the power of reading for the first edition of the Vaga Lume Manaus Dinner. Led by ambassadors Iêda Carvalho and Ilana Minev Benchmol, the charity dinner took place at the Banzeiro restaurant. It featured a special menu prepared by chef Felipe Schaedler and a wine list from “The Vino.” We also counted on Solar Brasil’s partnership and Rede Amazônica’s presence to cover the event.

International Donation

In 2023, we received a USD 2 million donation from writer and philanthropist Mackenzie Scott through the Giving Pledge, which will be directed to the Vaga Lume Sustainability Fund. To receive this contribution, Vaga Lume underwent a rigorous audit process that confirmed the seriousness of our work and the impact generated in the Legal Amazon.

Training for teachers from the municipal education network

In an effort to educate the school community and promote reading in public schools, we trained teachers in the Vaga Lume reading mediation methodology. This action expands the repertoire and provides educators with tools to connect books to children and foster a reading habit, just like it happens in our libraries.

Field Trip with Council Members

The group of councilors visited the Carvoeiro community in Barcelos (AM) to examine our work closely. The trip included immersion in the community, cultural presentations, and a reopening party for the library after renovating the reading space.

Bringing their baggage and professional experiences, the councilors volunteer and support Vaga Lume's management.

"I met Ananias in the Carvoeiro library, whose eyes sparkled when he heard stories. Even though he did not know how to read, he visited the library assiduously. I was enchanted to realize that Ananias knew all the pages of a book by heart. He asked me to read those pages out loud, and as I did, I could witness the joy and admiration on his face."

Partners' Trip

The Vaga Lume Partners' Trip 2023 took project partners to learn about our work in the Boa Vista community in Castanhal (PA). Representatives from the companies Alupar, Transmissoras Brasileiras de Energia (TBE), Brasilseg, BB Seguros, Stuttgart Porsche, and Nexo participated in the program with cultural presentations together with children, adolescents, and local volunteers.

Our partners also participated in storytelling circles and even learned how to conduct reading mediations. It was a magical trip, and the testimonials are beautiful:

"As a company, we have a social obligation to Brazil. Being here in practice, witnessing this engagement, and the entire network formed with the project is amazing."

Marina Giannotti, Alupar

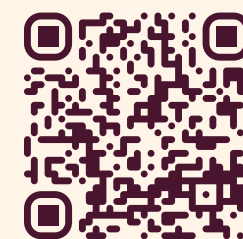

"Being here today and experiencing some of the actions proposed by Vaga Lume is very important. Bringing this to the Legal Amazon is essential so that these children develop a love for reading."

Luciana Esteves, BB Seguros

"It took me back to when I was a child when someone would tell a story. Being able to do this in this place is an emotion I will cherish for the rest of my life."

Vaga Lume Dinner 2023

Our Ambassador Group held the Vaga Lume Dinner 2023. The dinner's goal was to raise funds for the construction of the Vaga Lume library headquarters in rural communities in the Legal Amazon. These headquarters strengthen access to books and the bond between reading mediators and children, further enhancing the territory's culture and knowledge.

The Book Fair

For the second consecutive year, we participated in The Book Fair, promoted by the Associação Quatro Cinco Um, in Pacaembu, São Paulo (SP). We participated in two days of the fair, bringing library furniture and our collection to the event.

PARTNERSHIPS

The knowledge accumulated over more than two decades must be shared and replicated, so we always seek partnerships and projects to share our expertise in reading mediation methodology, community library management, and volunteering. With projects designed to meet the demands of each partner, we expand the impact of reading and finance our activities at Amazon.

Next, check out these developments in 2023.

Exhibition Welcome to the Amazon

Those who passed through the São Paulo Metro's Paulista Station during January 2023 could see the "Welcome to the Amazon" exhibition on the platform access walkway. With ten screens, the initiative presented data about the Legal Amazon, such as education indexes, water resources, biodiversity, and culture. The exhibition remained at the station until January 31 and was held in partnership with ViaQuatro, the manager of Line 4 Amarela. From February to March, the exhibition was at the João Dias and Autódromo stations of Line 9 Esmeralda of CPTM.

Children's Amazon – C6 Bank

C6 Bank partnered with us to promote reading in communities by launching of the book “Amazônia das Crianças” (Children's Amazon). Sponsored by C6 Bank and Mastercard, this is the first children's publication by Araquém Alcântara, one of the pioneers of nature photography in Brazil, with over 60 books published over a 50-year career. The book features 15 children from six states in the Amazon region (Acre, Amapá, Amazonas, Mato Grosso, Pará, and Roraima) who narrate their daily adventures in the first person.

Through Vaga Lume, each school in the communities involved in the project received Araquém's new publication and a collection of 120 other complementary titles. We also conducted reading mediation training sessions for educators from the schools participating in the book. Araquém Alcântara's work is accompanied by a teacher's edition of the book, with information and activity suggestions—material also used in the training of reading mediators.

Donations to Vaga Lume can be made through the C6 Bank app via direct debit or points accumulated in the bank's loyalty program.

“The first word that comes to mind when I think about the interaction between C6 Bank and Vaga Lume in the Children's Amazon project is care. Indeed, Vaga Lume was cautious in every stage and with the surprises that arose throughout the journey, paying attention to all stakeholders and customizing the experience according to our needs and those of the communities involved. I have a deep sense of admiration for the entire organization and a desire to continue working together.”

Marina Mancini,
C6 Bank

Vaga Lume at the Instituto Moreira Salles

From January to April 2023, IMS Paulista offered a new communal space related to the exhibition ‘Xingu: Contatos,’ conceived in partnership with us. We curated the collection of children's and young adult books and provided training for educators on reading mediation. The communal area featured books, films, and a large interactive mural with illustrations and words in Kuikuro, one of the languages spoken in the Xingu territory. The space was designed for adults and children to learn more about the cultures of indigenous peoples.

4. PRESENT AND FUTURE

FINANCIAL DATA:

How do you read it, and why does it matter?

Our financial data refers to the annual economic and accounting statements collected and systematized. It is essential to view the numbers as outcomes of the work of different stakeholders. These indicators demonstrate our transparency and financial health and guide decision-making by the Board, Council, and Finance Committee in approving and managing the annual budget.

Our financial sustainability

Considering the primary sources of funding mentioned on the side, we maintain our financial sustainability through ongoing partnerships with companies and individuals who invest in our organization's purpose and align with our way of being and doing things. Part of this process involves overseeing the Advisory Council and Fiscal Committee, ensuring the organization meets its objectives while respecting its financial health.

Our primary sources of funding

Donations from companies

These can be made via incentive laws like the Rouanet Law or Condeca. Companies can also contribute to specific projects, such as establishing libraries or acquiring collections. Another option is unrestricted donations, allowing for investment in the overall development of our activities.

Donations from individuals

Contributions of any amount, whether monthly or one-time, can be made through our website or via the PIX key financeiro@vagalume.org.br.

Financial basics:

Our most important indicators and what they mean:

Balance sheet

It presents our organization's accounting, financial, and economic position at a specific date—in this case, for the years 2022 and 2023.

Assets

Our tangible and intangible resources can be converted into cash, generating economic backing.

Net equity

It represents our wealth, the result of an equation that considers our assets, rights, and obligations.

Liabilities

Our financial obligations, what goes out.

DREAMS, TRANSPARENCY AND EXPANSION

Vaga Lume has a non-negotiable commitment to the dream that every child and young person has their right to books and reading guaranteed in every corner of the Legal Amazon. We are tireless regarding when it comes to children, adolescents, books, and the Amazon.

The year 2023 demanded deep reflections from us, along with agile responses, always guided by the pursuit of excellence and innovation, but also heavily marked by adaptation and constant learning. We achieved significant milestones by establishing six new libraries in the Castanhal and Santarém municipalities in Pará. We won the Best Education NGO Award in Brazil for the third time. Over 14 thousand books were distributed, and over 100 days were spent in the field accompanying, monitoring, and providing training in the communities and municipalities where we operate. It was a year of new encounters that strengthened our commitment to the children and young people of the Amazon.

Our efforts to expand and deepen all the relationships that permeate our daily lives. Connections with communities are the essence of Vaga Lume's lasting impact, and respect is the premise of our work, whether in relations with people, territories, or the resources raised daily and with much effort. Each library is a door that opens to unlimited opportunities, enhanced by beautiful children's literature books.

Our dream of a reading Amazon is built through a vast network of people: volunteers, technical team, counselors and associates, partner organizations, and donors who understand the transformative power of books. And this entire network is permeated by a transparency that irrevocably involves the organization.

The challenge now is to enhance the innovative synergy of our ecosystem: balancing sustainable growth, goals, and processes with the still-existing difficulties in the third sector and the region where we operate; nurturing work with the young people who are the future generations that will keep the Amazon standing; applying management tools developed by us to grow without compromising quality; and never losing our essence based on respect and care.

Our eyes shine, our hearts are committed, our minds are focused, and our energy is directed to always go further. We know and recognize the power of each person who ensures that this human network has the necessary support to move forward. Let us go together!

SUPPORT OUR WORK AND TELL THIS STORY WITH US!

“Vaga Lume arrives bringing such a light and strength that only those who know our communities (before and after) can speak about. The library, with its rich collection, and the volunteers, with their mastery of the methodology, can build a new story.”

Leticia Santos Canavieira, 43 years old,
a volunteer in Barreirinhas (MA)

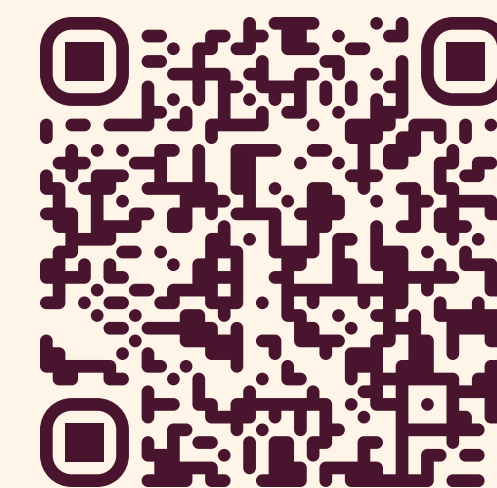

“My eyes light up when I visit the communities, and the children facilitate the reading mediation for us. When they are asked to read books, they show the desire to be heard. These gestures prove the important role of Vaga Lume in these children’s lives and remind me that I am on the right path as a citizen who believes in the power of education.”
