

Hello, I'm Mami Suzuki, how are you?

I'm studying service for weddings now at school. I'll do my best so that I can get a good result. I'm trying hard in my job-hunting activities now too. I do my best so that I can graduate happily at the end of this school year. To pass the Hotel Restaurant Service Test on October 27 we practice hard every day. This test is so important for working in the professional field and we are very nervous.

I haven't decided where I should work, so I'm nervous.

In addition, we are preparing to produce our mock wedding ceremony as a graduation work. We do this every year in February.

So, please take care of yourself.

Good-bye!!!
