

Dear Mr. Anderson

I was very happy to see you the other day at my school. I was so nervous that I couldn't talk you well. But you always smiled to me.

Recently I attended the Coming-of-Age Day celebration. I met my old friends and had a good time with them. We shared our young days' memory and future life.

At school I had a Chinese restaurant service and sign language service test. I started studying from the beginning. It was tough at the beginning, but I was very happy to pass the test.

Thank you very much for your two years' support. Thanks to the scholarship I spend good days.

Natsumi Maruko