

Some before and after shots in the Costa Maya Following Hurricane Dean

Punta Dzucoch

Destruction even of concrete structures.

Palapa Food Hall (the building in the background on after picture used to be two storeys)

Main Building (last man standing)

The Estacion Costa Maya (local partner's research base)

These are just some examples of the devastation in the village. More photos and updates will follow as soon as they are ready.