Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan has been dealing with various significant issues for last 28 years. These issues include women empowerment, sustainable livelihood, environment conservation, education, health. It is a matter of pride. The organization, according to the Mahatma Gandhi’s principle “A little determination and your faith to the aim may change the history.” is striving for the development of marginalized and deprived section. The annual report represents the appreciable works of the organization.

Corona pandemic has affected all class over the world. Along with this lakhs and crores of people have been affected due to it, people have lost their employment, our economy has gone down and in this situation the responsibility of non-profit organizations towards the migrant labour, poor, disabled, marginalized etc needy people is increased.

In this situation, Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan launched “Together We Can” Campaign under Covid-19 humanitarian relief. In this campaign food security of thousands of people was secured. Important needs like sanitizers, PPE Kit, Masks, Gloves, Face shields etc were provided to various departments like sanitation, police, health etc. 34 lakh people joined in the social media campaign of RSKS India and got aware of the pandemic. Public awareness of the protocols and safety from coronavirus was done. Thousands of sanitary napkins were distributed to women for the safe menstrual health. Cash grant was provided to disabled people for self employment. This all was possible only because of the joint effect of our team, partners, government and stakeholders. We are grateful to the hundreds of people who volunteered with us for free.

I appreciate the noble work of Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan and hope them to continue their significant efforts.

PARTNERS, SUPPORTERS AND NETWORK
RSKS India has established new dimensions by successfully working towards women empowerment. In the direction of women’s empowerment, rural women became self-reliant due to the project run by RSKS India and they also became free from the social evils and bondage. Only by making empowerment a verdict, women can make their own presence in the male dominated society and can also lead the society. RSKS India operated the following project for women empowerment:

STOP VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

DESCRIPTION

Many cases of female violence are reported every year, which is very sad. Against this, project was being operated by RSKS India in the inaccessible village of Pisangan block and awareness activities like workshop, posters, end paintings, street plays, rallies and road shows were conducted on a large scale. The message of prevention of violence against women reached the male dominated society. This year, an awareness workshop on social evils like eradication of women violence, child marriage, gender inequality, dowry etc. was organized by RSKS India in more than 150 inaccessible rural areas.

To make school girls aware of social evils, Poster competition on social activities was organized in more than 150 girls’ schools and wall paintings were also made. This also made the school girl aware of social malpractices and became aware. RSKS India through more than 250 street plays, puppet shows, rallies, road shows, signature campaigns, the rural masses were made aware and message of creating a women violence free society was given.

In a unique initiative under this project, the organization also explained the good touch and bad touch to the small school children. Under this, information about good touch and bad touch was given to school children through flip chart, color chart etc in 70 schools.

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

The main objective of this project was to bring gender equality within the male dominated society, respect for women, end social malpractices, decrease in dowry system and women should also have equal rights in society.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Organized awareness program in more than 70 villages of Pisangan block.
2. Organized more than 150 workshops in which around 5000 people participated.
3. Poster competition was organized in 160 schools.
4. 4,000 women and men participated in the 140 awareness activities.
5. Program of Good Touch and Bad Touch was organized in 70 schools.
SELF HELP GROUP PROJECT

DESCRIPTION:
Self help group project was being operated by RSKS India in 100 inaccessible regions of many villages. Through SHG, women of poor and disadvantaged communities were being empowered financially by building up their capacities and increasing self-confidence. More than 350 SHGs were formed this year by the RSKS Organization and provided them with financial assistance for economic activity by banks.

3800 women became a part of this project run by RSKS India. All SHG’s had monthly basis meeting to discuss employment and work of women. RSKS Team members also informed them about financial and banking sector. With financial support, women have set up employment units and have been doing self employment.

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

The main objective of this project was to achieve socio-economic development of rural women through a mobilization and to provide leadership in the society by eradicating the distinction between high and low.

ACHIEVEMENTS:

1. Operated in 100 inaccessible regional villages.
2. Formation of more than 350 SHGs with active participation of about 3400 women.
3. 94% women attended SHG bank per month.
4. All women are involved in business activity.
5. 100% women got knowledge of banking sector.

CAPACITY BUILDING, LIFE SKILLS AND LEADERSHIP TRAINING

DESCRIPTION

To increase the capacity and life skills of women of self-help groups, so that they can better manage economic resources and ensure their livelihood.

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

Under this program, self-help group women were trained by capacity building training, life skills training, leadership training and primary education was also given by RSKS India. This year more than 200 SHGs were imparted various types of training. Through this training, the ability of women along with their knowledge has increased.

Now they are able to run their own employment better as well as increasing the livelihood resources. By this, the social and economic status of women in the family and society is improved. The participation of women in government and panchayati programs increased. Women have got strength with the help of this group and it has providing them an integrated platform where both participation and role of women is important.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. More than 200 SHG’s were given different types of training.
2. 2200 women got the benefit of training and their orientation was done.
3. After training, 100% trained women gained capacity building and knowledge of life skills.
E SHAKTI

DESCRIPTION

The SHG were digitized through the E-Shakti project by Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan. The entire information of 120 self-help group accounts was recorded by the organization with the help of mobile application in which information of group members, accounts of their savings, bookkeeping etc. were recorded through mobile application. In the monthly meeting of the organization, the savings of women were updated with the help of mobile. This project was a further step towards Digital India.

OBJECTIVE

To digitalize the account to the SHGs through E-Shakti project. This will bring transparency in the work of self-help groups.

FEATURE POINTS

1. Digitalization was done in the accounts of 12 self-help groups by Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan.
2. Self-help group savings, bookkeeping, transaction update information was received through mobile application.
3. The operation of the project facilitated self-help group data collection and at the same time the transparency of the work was great.

POSITIVE FATHERHOOD

DESCRIPTION

The Positive Fatherhood Project was organized by the Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan in the inaccessible villages of Sawai Madhopur district. The aim of which is to make the rural population aware of social evils like female molestation, child marriage etc. by organizing awareness programs in rural areas. The project area is followed up periodically by the organization. For which the Village Action Group was formed in the villages by the organization. This group makes people aware by organizing awareness programs from time to time. Under this, the Village Action Group organized workshops on eve teasing in two villages in which young boy, girl, rural community and village official participated. The Village Action Group worked to end the evil practices prevalent in the society and their aim was to give women a place like men in the male dominated society.

OBJECTIVE

To digitalize the account to the SHGs through E-Shakti project. This will bring transparency in the work of self-help groups.

FEATURE POINTS

1. Awareness was brought in rural areas about social evils like female molestation, child marriage etc.
2. Village Action Group was formed to prevent incidents of tampering.
3. The participation of the village official, public community and the younger generation was increased in the awareness program.
4. Village Action Group was making the society aware and increased the participation of women in the society.
RSKS India worked on a variety of educational models for girl’s education and better literacy, which aimed to provide quality education to the girls in the country so that their future can become beautiful by becoming educated.

PATHSHALA: A PLATFORM FOR QUALITY EDUCATION

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

To connect the poor and deprived community girls of 6 to 14 years old with mainstream education by giving them quality education through the Pathshala schools.

DESCRIPTION

Pathshala was a model of girl education development, in which RSKS India worked to connect the school drop-out girls of 6 to 14 years old with the mainstream education. RSKS India operated 8 Pathshala schools in 8 remote villages, in which 240 poor and underprivileged community drop out girls received free education. It is through the school itself that the basic knowledge of English, discipline, hygiene, rights etc were also given for the development of these girls. The main focus of RSKS was to provide quality education so that these girls can be linked to mainstream education. Pathshala schools enrolled 180 girls in the last session. Sports and recreational activities were also organized in the school every week for the healthy growth of girls. Periodical festivals, social days were also celebrated with great enthusiasm.

6. Organized festival and social days in Pathshala.
7. Girls got basic knowledge of English.
UDAAN: A SCHOOL FOR DROPOUT WOMEN

OBJECTIVE

To make women literate by giving basic education to the school dropout women of rural community and increase their confidence.

DESCRIPTION

In this model of education development, women who have left their studies were taught in order to make them literate. 70 women of 2 Udaan School run by RSKS India were being made literate through Udaan School. In Udaan schools, women were being taught Hindi, English, and Mathematics easily. Now these women write their own name & in addition they can read the newspaper etc. All the women coming to Udaan school were illiterate, they did not even know to write their own names but now these women can also do their signature. RSKS India also took the test of these women from time to time so that there results could be successfully evaluated. Along with the book knowledge, life skills and practical knowledge was also given to these women. It is a matter of great pleasure for the RSKS India that 25 women of Udaan school gave 8th class exam and got distinction. All this reflects the success of the program and RSKS India.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. RSKS India operated 2 Udaan schools which educated 70 illiterate women.
2. 25 women of Udaan school passed eighth grade examination.
3. RSKS India conducted the exam from time to time.
4. Book knowledge along with life skills and practical knowledge were given.
5. All women became literate and now they can sign in place of thumb.
GURUKUL: THE STREET CHILD EDUCATION

FINANCIAL LITERACY

DESCRIPTION

Even today women in rural areas do not go to the bank for banking transactions. The main reason for this is that rural women do not have knowledge of banking system. Hence the financial literacy campaign was conducted by Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan. The program of financial literacy was also important because bank fraud happens to the rural people in the coming days, so through financial literacy organized by RSKS India, 530 rural women were also informed about banking transaction and financial schemes. Rural women also showed interest in the program and became financially literate. RSKS India conveyed the message of banking work safely to women and asked them to avoid banking fraud. Through the program, rural women became financially literate and started participating in banking transactions. Now these women are going to the bank and doing the transactions themselves.

FEATURE POINTS

1. 530 rural women got information about banking practices and financial schemes through workshop.
2. Women became aware of online banking fraud.
3. Knowledge of banking transactions increased and also participation of women in banking work also increased.
Sustainable Livelihood

Economic Development of The School Dropout Young Women & Girls Through Vocational Training

DESCRIPTION

Skill development training was being conducted by RSKS India to make the women and girls of poor and deprived communities in rural areas economical, empowered and self-reliant. Self-reliant and self-employed was made by RSKS India by providing skill development training to women in 5 different trades which were Garment Making, Bag Making, Handicraft, Beauty Parlour, Azolla farming and Organic Farming.

In these trainings, priority was given to divorced, widowed, disabled, violence-affected women. Since the training was conducted in rural areas, the training was theoretical and experimental, which made it easier for women and girls to learn.

This year 20 batches were organized by RSKS India in which 600 women and young girls were benefitted through vocational training. During the training itself, training for life skills, leadership, and capacity building was also imparted to women, which also increased women’s self-confidence and knowledge of life. For the success of training and making women self-employed, RSKS India organized an exhibition, but market and a job fair to enable women to get better employment.

Sports and recreational activities for women were also organized from time to time. Their skill net group was formed during training to keep women together. Through the group, women meet every month and also collect their savings. Mobilization of the group gave stability to the project. Women and girls meet together every month and share their problems and solve them all together. In these meetings, women and girls also discussed employment and strategies for the future.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. The organization organized skill training for women in 5 different trades.
2. 600 women were made employable and self-sufficient with a total of 20 batches of operation in the inaccessible villages.
3. The training was kept experimental and theoretical.
4. Organized sports and recreational activities during training.
5. Organized life skill, leadership, and capacity building training to make women and girls self-reliant.
6. Organized exhibition/hut market to learn marketing tricks.
7. Job fairs were organized to provide employment opportunities.
8. Skill Net Groups/SHG’s were formed and loan was arranged to stabilize the work and start employment.

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

To increase the capacity and life skills of women of self-help groups, so that they can better manage economic resources and ensure their livelihood.

EDP: Successful Entrepreneurship Training

DESCRIPTION

It has often seen that despite having better skill/knowledge, women are unable to do jobs because they do not know how to get better management and guidance for employment. Therefore, EDP training was organized for women and girls by RSKS India. 600 women of 20 batches were given EDP training which was organized by the RSKS this year. Through this training, women learned the tricks of successful entrepreneurship and learned better management for employment. Through EDP training, the women learned closely about self-employment and also gained knowledge of work efficiency. After learning from this training, most of the women took up self-employment and stepped up and became self-sufficient.

OBJECTIVE

Provide better management and guidance in order to use skills and intelligence for setting up of employment unit.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Organized EDP training in 20 batches.
2. 600 women and girls learned the tricks of successful entrepreneurship.
3. Women and girls learned tricks of employment and better supervision through training.
4. After EDP training, women got self-employed and made a move towards empowerment.

Skill Support Mission

DESCRIPTION

Skill Support Mission was organized by Rajasthan Samgrah Kalyan Sansthan and FVTRS. This year a workshop, seminar etc. programs were organized by the organization in the Skill Support Mission, based on the theme of Job for All Youth, in which successful entrepreneurs, government officials and young people participated extensively. Youth benefited from this program. This campaign along with the needs of skill training helped in mobilizing resources and making the youth skill aware. This campaign was mainly to promote skill training of the poor and needy youth living among the community. The youth participated enthusiastically in this program. The poster of Skill Support Mission was also released on the occasion.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the Skill Support Mission is to seek employment resources for skilled youth and connect them with self-employment.

FEATURE POINTS

1. Workshops and seminars were organized for the youth under the Skill Support Mission.
2. In the program based on the theme of Job for Every Youth, youth were informed about skills training along with raising employment resources.
Socio Economic Empowerment with Solidarity for Persons with Disabilities

Under this Disabled Welfare Project, RSKS India aimed to make people with disabilities stronger in education, health, employment, social security and empowerment and added them to the mainstream of the society. For this RSKS India selected 16 villages in Pisangan block where the project was being operated under which there were 460 disabled people participation. There was no age limit in this project as disabled of any age were not getting their rights in today’s time, hence the organization was constantly fighting for their rights and benefited them.

Under the program, digital handicapped certificates of more than 100 handicapped people were provided by RSKS members, which was their basic right. 20 Handicapped who needed helpful accessories, were provided the accessories they needed by the help of resources. In order to enable the disabled people to become more empowered, 40 disabled people were linked with employment by RSKS India which includes NREGA, open wages, daily wages, shop and self-employment.

Under the project, more than 100 disabled people were linked to various types of social security schemes such as disabled pension, old age pension, widow pension, Indira Awas Yojana, Jan Aadhaar Card scholarship etc. The sustainability of the project required all handicapped people to be grouped together in solidarity, for which 4 DPO groups were formed in the project area by RSKS India. DPO group i.e. Disabled People Organization, RSKS India Organized 4 DPO which included about 90 disabled people.

The purpose of the DPO was that people with disabilities will be organized in groups and then they fight united for their rights and become economically and socially empowered. Monthly DPO meetings were held by RSKS members, their problems were discussed in the meetings as well as the rights of disabled people were also discussed. Information about the scheme brought by the government for the disabled was also given in the DPO meetings.

The DPO become a platform where people with disabilities were fighting altogether for their rights and working for the benefit of the disabled. In the coming time, the objective of the organization is that DPO’s will be formed in all the villages of the work region. Through the DPO, all the disabled people will be able to follow up every month, so that their work information and problem is resolved continuously.

Under this project special attention was given to children with disabilities from 0 to 14 years because this age is their learning but disability impedes them from learning. Therefore, RSKS workers did home based activities with these children. Under the Home based activity, the handicapped child were taught by identifying the obstacle and how to overcome that obstacle easily and also the activities of the disabled children in daily life was also discussed. Special attention was given to them because the handicapped child is not able to do daily activities himself and is dependent on the family. Therefore, the family members were taught how to make the daily activities of the child accessible so that they can do it themselves and then the parents can do their own work.

RSKS members conducted home based activity with children with disabilities every week and benefited more than 40 disabled children at home. Some disabled children were also being given education based activity which is also increasing the knowledge of these children with the help of Simple tools, charts, color cards, matching cards, etc. It was the first step towards education. The role of family members was important in this period as they were regularly with the disabled child, so whatever activity is done, their family members were involved and they were taught the same so that they can regularly repeat the activities at home.
By empowering people with disabilities in the five important pillars which are health, education, employment, social and empowerment. Also to increase disabled people participation in society by making them self-reliant.

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. The project was being operated in 16 villages.
2. Work was being done for the health, education, employment, empowerment, social security of 460 disabled people in the project area.
3. Disabled certificate of more than 100 handicapped were created.
4. 30 handicapped were provided with helpful handicapped accessories.
5. 4 DPO’s were formed in which 90 handicapped people are active.
6. 40 handicapped children were getting home based activity every week.
ENVIRONMENT AND SANITATION

CLEAN INDIA CAMPAIGN

The objective of the “Clean India Campaign was to establish an ideal village by making the rural area clean and garbage free. Total sanitation campaign was carried out in various villages by the RSKS India. All the villagers contributed to the seven-day sanitation program, whether child or elder, female or male.

Involving the school children in this campaign, RSKS organized a poster competition and public rally with them in which the message of cleanliness was given, as well as planting of trees at places like Gram Panchayat, Hospital, Temples, schools etc.

The children took an oath of cleanliness and took care of their safety by adopting trees. The result of this campaign made the entire village clean and dirt free, which laid the foundation of the ideal village.
MAKE A WISH FOR STREET & SLUM KIDS

OBJECTIVE / GOALS

To fulfill basic and important needs like health, education, nutrition of poor children of street, slums and disadvantaged sections, so that their standard of living can be improved.

DESCRIPTION

Poor children living in slums along the road were far away from basic needs like health, education and nutrition. It was often seen that they indulge in unethical acts like theft, begging etc to fulfill their basic needs. The main objective of this project was that by providing facilities like better health, education, nutrition to these poor children, they should be linked with the mainstream of the society.

RSKS surveyed the slum children located around the city to fulfill the objective of this project and got their basic requirement. A total of 525 children were identified by the organization and provided basic facilities like health, education and nutrition through activities. The following activities were organized by the organization this year:

1. Discipline and Moral Values Camp

With access to all the slums of the city, RSKS India organized discipline and moral values camp with all the children. The organization taught discipline to these children through sports while doing more than 40 different sports activities. And the moral values were taught because these children were found to be indulging in unethical activities like theft, intoxication, abusive speech and begging. Hence, morality lessons and discipline were taught by games, which made children understand the respect of children, cleanliness in daily life, not stealing and behaving well.

2. Proper Nutritional Diet and health awareness

Children living in slums were malnourished and did not get physical development due to lack of nutritious food. For this, health awareness and balanced nutrition diet program were organized by RSKS Organization. Under it, 30 programs, informed about nutritional elements and explained their needs in the body through flip charts, nutrient charts, videos and posters.

Under this program, RSKS members prepared nutritious food in the slum and fed it to the children. Health checkup of children was also done under this program, in which their weight and height were measured according to age.

3. Sports and cultural programs

From time to time, RSKS India organized sports and cultural programs to keep these children healthy. The organization did more than 50 programs. Sports, yoga, exercises, recreational sports etc were organized in which the children participated enthusiastically.

4. Connection to Education

These children were taught by RSKS members through sports which increased their interest in education. The events were supported by RSKS members as well as local people and volunteers who taught these children regularly. Now most of these children have moved towards education. With the encouragement of the organization, the dream of these children of getting enrolled in school was being fulfilled as they were linked with the mainstream of education.

5. Festival and nutritious food details

The festivals that come from time to time are celebrated with these children by RSKS India. Under this, Holi, Diwali, Christmas and other festivals were organized in which food items, firecrackers, colors, gifts, sweets, biscuits were distributed to the children and 400 dresses were also distributed to the children.

In order to make the childhood of poor little ones happy, 300 toys and gifts were distributed by the organization so that these children would rejoice happily and happiness returned to their faces once again because all this was just a dream for these children, which RSKS turned into reality.

6. Woolen jacket and sweater distribution

In the cold winter, these children had only old torn clothes to cover their bodies. 319 jackets and sweaters were distributed by the RSKS India to prevent cold. The children were very happy wearing jackets because now they got a woolen jacket to protect them from the cold.
Every woman should get better health facility during pregnancy and also balanced nutrition, so for this women were made aware through workshop under this project by RSKS India. RSKS India made women aware through a workshop in 40 villages on safe motherhood in order to create healthy newborn baby. Many types of problems arose due to lack of care of woman while her pregnancy. Apart from this, information about family planning was also given to women through the workshop. Women in rural areas do not have complete information at the time of conception and due to this it leads to the death of a newborn child. In order to prevent this, regular follow-up of pregnant women was being taken by the Anganwadi teachers after the encouragement from RSKS India and the investigation is also being done, after which they also got nutritious food packets and medicines.

DESCRIPTION

Women should get the right to health services with safe motherhood.

PURPOSE OR GOAL

1. Organized 40 workshops on safe motherhood and health awareness in inaccessible village, which made women aware.
2. Safety and nutrition information was given during pregnancy.
3. Openly discussion on family planning.
Even today, women and young girls in rural areas use traditional resources such as cloth, cotton, newspaper during menstruation. Because of this, women have to face many types of diseases and infections. RSKS India is working to spread awareness on this sensitive issue. RSKS India encouraged women to use sanitary napkins and make menstruation safe. More than 2,000 women were made aware and distribution of thousands sanitary napkins through more than 50 workshops were done by RSKS India. This encouraged the use of sanitary napkins. Women become aware by joining the program and are now using sanitary napkins.

To provide information about menstrual health to women and young girls of inaccessible village and to encourage the use of sanitary napkins for safe menstruation.

1. Through awareness activity of this project, more than 2000 women benefited and became aware.

3. Women were informed about menstrual health through more than 50 workshops.
4. The program emphasized the use of sanitary napkins and conveyed habit change.
Malaria is a global disease that is showing its effects all over the world. It is a mosquito-borne disease that spreads more in the dirty area and people living in slum habitat are more affected by this disease because the dirt is spread around the slum area.

RSKS India selected these types of slums and conducted awareness activities against malaria over there. RSKS India selected 20 slum settlements in the city and organized the workshop there. In this, the entire slum was cleaned along with the residents and the dirty water was removed. Mosquito nets were distributed by the RSKS India to people living in mosquito-affected areas. Mosquito nets were distributed by the RSKS Organization to a total of 500 families who live in the mosquito effective area. With the use of mosquito nets, they were able to sleep peacefully and without any fear.

OBJECTIVE

To spread awareness about global epidemic malaria as well as to provide better health to the people living in slum colonies.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Awareness programs were organized in 20 urban slums.
2. Mosquito nets were distributed to 500 families.
3. Cleanliness campaign were organized in the slum area.
TB is a global disease in which the suffering person has to face many types of difficulties. In TB, the person starts losing weight and has weakness, which requires the patient to eat protein-rich food, but people from lower strata are not able to buy protein-rich diet. RSKS India helped TB MDR patients with protein dietary content. RSKS India distributed regular protein rich diet to 20 TB MDR patients every month which included Soyabean, Dal, Chana Dal, Moong Dal, Egg Tray, Milk, etc. The intake of major protein content increased their weight and made them healthy.

DESCRIPTION

To provide better health and protein content to the people belonging to the lower classes suffering from global disease like TB.

OBJECTIVE

To provide better health and protein content to the people belonging to the lower classes suffering from global disease like TB.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Regular follow-up and health checkup of 20 TB MDR patients was done.
2. Distribution of protein rich food items every month to 20 patients was done.
3. Increase in weight of patients and they became healthy.
FOOD SECURITY FOR VULNERABLE ELDERLY

DESCRIPTION

It is often seen in our society that parents who took care and nurtured their children throughout their life have to face loneliness in their old age. There are some cases in front of RSKS India in which older women are unable to get food for two times. So ration material was distributed by the RSKS India for the better health of such older women.

RSKS India distributed ration every month regularly and provided food security to 20 old women. This ration material included flour, rice, sugar, oil, spices, salt, vegetable, milk, etc., which ensured food security of the old age women for one month and they were able to get food for two times.

OBJECTIVE

To ensure food security and better health of old age women.

ACHIEVEMENTS

1. Under the program, food security of 20 older women was secured.
2. Regularly distribution of ration material to all 20 women per month was done.
3. Better health due to consumption of food items.
4. Now these women are living a respectable life.
RSKS India respects all religions and makes/celebrates all festivals and social days coming from time to time with great interest amongst the community. It’s main purpose is that people are forgetting the importance of social, festival-day and they do not even know its importance. Hence RSKS India organized festivals and social days with the people. This year the following festival and social day were organized by the organization:

- Earth Day

In today’s time, dependence on chemical fertilizer has become more in order to get more production and valuable crops, but its harmful effects are on the farm and on human health. In order to reduce the dependence of chemical fertilizer, the farmers were being made aware of organic manure by RSKS India. The use of organic manure increases the fertilizing capacity of the fields and increases production as well as is safe. Keeping this in view, training of Vermin Compost and Azolla farming was organized by RSKS India. In the one month training, 70 women were given vermin compost training and were taught to make organic manure. The training was kept experimental and theoretical in order to make it simple.

During the training, the women were taught to create a vermin compost unit using the surrounding resources. Along with this project, training of Azolla farming was also given to women. Azolla is an animal feed. It is nutritious food for all animals which give milk and it also increases the capacity of milk those animals give. So the cattle rearing women learned to make Azolla unit. Azolla has high demand in the market. Women started it and also earned from it.

DESCRIPTION

To reduce the cost of crops by increasing the capacity of the farms by promoting organic fertilizers so that the farmers benefit.

OBJECTIVE

1. 2 training of Vermin Compost and Azolla farming were organized in which 70 rural farmer women participated.
2. Information about organic manure and construction of 10 vermin compost units.
3. Training of animal feed Azolla and construction of 6 azolla units.
4. Increase in use of organic manure and employment.
5. Producing more by increasing the fertility of the fields.

ACHIEVEMENTS
RSKS India always stands for the support of the community at the time of disaster to spread humanity, whether it be a flood in Kerala or an earthquake in Nepal or a severe flood in western Rajasthan. RSKS India does relief work with full determination at the time of any disaster. Even in the hour of disaster due to Covid-19, RSKS India was determined towards its work. RSKS team members were involved in relief work while fulfilling moral duty. This work was being done in a phased manner by the organization which included awareness program and ration distribution program. The work done by the RSKS India in the period of covid-19 disaster is as follows:

1. Before lockdown awareness work

Keeping in view the safety of the community, RSKS India started public awareness work before lock down. RSKS India did awareness work in rural, urban, slum areas through posters, flip charts and workshops and educated 500 women, men and children to ensure protection and safety measures from covid-19. Along with this social distancing, regular hand washing and regular use of masks was advised. People were encouraged by RSKS India to seek medical advice immediately if any person in or around them becomes ill.

2. After lockdown awareness

RSKS India worked in order to fight against Covid-19. After the lock down, RSKS India went on to work effectively with full security and continued the awareness work but in some different way.

RSKS India started spreading awareness of Covid-19 through phone calls at the time of lock down. The team of RSKS informed 200 people daily about safety, security and precaution from Covid-19 through a call and also explained the importance of cleanliness and gave people a message to stay safe at home.

RSKS India used social media platforms as a weapon to spread awareness about Covid-19. People were made aware through posters, videos, photos or awareness slogans giving the message of safety and rescue.

3. Ration distribution work

Covid-19 was a disaster in which people faced many problems. Food is one of them. To overcome this problem, food packets were distributed to the handicapped, daily laborers, nomadic, deprived families by RSKS India. These food packets contained flour, rice, spices, vegetable, lentils etc. 550 families were provided with ration for their food security by RSKS India. In view of security and social distance, these food material packets were sent door to door by the RSKS India.
4. Mask making

Keeping in mind sanitation and safety, safety masks were made by RSKS Organization. Making of safety masks from home made clothes by women and young girls trained by RSKS India. 35 beneficiary women of RSKS India were involved in mask making work & made 4500 safety masks and distributed them to the community in the village itself. RSKS India created a peace by uniting women who have made a small but significant contribution in the battle against Covid-19 by making safety masks. These women also made public aware by distributing safety masks in the village and gave the message of regular using of masks.

5. CWDs Home Based Activity and Follow Up

Consultation work was also being done by the RSKS India through the phone calls with disabled. Every day 100 handicapped people were being informed about the safety and security against Covid-19 through call by RSKS team members. Under this program, team RSKS conducted home based activity with children with disabilities through video call. Under which children with disabilities and their families were being taught to make handicapped child’s daily activities accessible and gave them education through the color cards and charts. Information about cleanliness and safety from Covid-19 was also being provided on video calls itself.

6. Together we can

This campaign was launched on 15 April by RSKS India in order to spread awareness against covid-19 and it was organized at the national level. People of all age were being encouraged in this campaign to participate in this awareness campaign of Covid-19 and play their active participation through poster, rangoli, my selfie and video competition. People become a part of this campaign right from home.

In all the contests of this campaign, the winners were given more than one lakh prize money/award and certificate by the organization. RSKS India has reached 3.4 million people through this campaign.

Social Warrior Award was also a part of Together We Can campaign which was specially awarded dedicated to all Corona Warriors. In this hour of crisis, the warriors who performed their moral duties regardless of his/her life will were honored by RSKS.
