

School Support Project for 200 children living in difficult neighborhoods of Port-au-Prince.

Summary

This project consists of financial assistance to pay for the costs claimed by the directions of the targeted schools and distributing school supplies (notebooks, pens pencils, rulers, sharpeners...) to support 200 poor children living in poor neighborhoods of Port-au-Prince, capital of Haiti. These children have so far not yet gone to school because their parents do not even have a house to sleep and eat, see find money for the education of their children. Women, often alone, without the support of their husbands indulge in all sorts of activities to raise children. They live in overcrowded slums are unemployed and do not have the financial means to pay school fees for sending their children to school and buy school supplies (notebooks, pens, bags, uniforms ...).

Challenge

The problem is that despite these 200 children are of school age, they have not yet gone to school. They are deprived of this right, which is education. Their parents live in extreme poverty and are unemployed. So they are not able to send their children to school.

Solution

These 200 poor children wait for your financial help to go to school like other children. Your help will allow these children to become full citizens and agents of change in their own country in which to live.

Long-Term Impact

From your financial support and with the new school year in August 2016, these 200 children will be in school and receive school materials (notebooks, pens, pencils, bags ...), which will reduce the rate of non-school children.
