

A heartfelt thank you to Action for Development (AfD), the dedicated trainers, and my fellow midwives who accompanied me on this journey. This experience was invaluable not only for the quality of learning and knowledge it provided but also for the human connections we built—sharing our experiences and learning from one another. As one chapter of our lives closes, a new one begins, bringing new opportunities to shape a brighter future. Let us embrace these moments and make the most of them.