The Youth Center Zajecar has been closed since 17 March and all programs have been canceled due to the coronavirus outbreak. Youth Center was forced to cancel planned public talks, movie screenings, and concerts. The drummer of the legendary Ramones, Richie Ramone was schedule to play in the Youth Center on 23 March 2020, while one of the biggest rock'n'roll bands in the world, Supersuckers from USA supposed to perform on 17 March. The good news is that both concerts are re-scheduled for late 2020/early 2021!

Discussing Important Community Issues

Since the opening of the winter season, Youth Center has organized eight public discussions about critical issues in the Zajecar community. Discussions addressed such topics as the missing archive of the local radio station, shutdown of the local football club, media situation, brain drain and migrations, participation of citizens in urban planning etc. The topics proved to be very relevant for the local citizens as there were more than 100 people actively participating in the discussions that were streamed online.

Pinning the Map

Youth Center put Zajecar on the global music map! Only in 2019, Youth center hosted bands from: USA, UK, Brazil, France, Ukraine, Sweden, India, Croatia and Switzerland. Hypnotunez from Ukraine played in late November 2019 and then got back in February 2020 as they were delighted by Zajecar audience. Such concerts are of tremendous cultural importance of the community

Galimatias in the Youth Center

Yes, we are satirical! Galimatias is the name of a series of performances, involving Giovanni (Stevan Jovanović) and Boccaccio (Boris Živulović) as authors and speakers. Every second week, they are discussing burning issues in the community and the county with their guests in a highly satirical manner. Galimatias series became very popular among young people in the community.
