

Youth Policy Fellowship Application

The Resilience Advocacy Project (RAP) is a NYC-based organization that trains youth to become leaders in the fight against poverty while advocating for the policies necessary to support your success. We are recruiting a group of young people like you (ages 16-24) to intern as paid policy fellows, with the opportunity to research social justice issues and develop concrete initiatives to push for change!

Applications are due September 15, 2017. The program will begin with an orientation in early October. In the fall semester, group meetings will be on Thursdays 4:00-600 PM.

Send the completed application to Elisa Kaplan, Deputy Executive Director for Programs at the Resilience Advocacy Project, at kaplan@resiliencelaw.org. Applications are also available online at <http://bit.ly/policyapp>

1. What is your name? _____

2. What is your phone number? (Write N/A if you don't have one.) _____

3. What is your email address? (Write N/A if you don't have one.) _____

4. What is your address, including borough? _____

5. How old are you? _____ (NOTE: you must be 16-24 to be eligible for this program)

6. If you are under 18, please provide the name, phone number, and/or address of a parent or guardian. (Write N/A if you are 18 or over.)

7. What issue(s) facing young people in New York City are you most concerned about, and why? (Please attach a separate piece of paper if necessary.)

8. What are some ideas you have to solve those issues? What sort of help do you think you would need to make those ideas a reality? (Please attach a separate piece of paper if necessary.)

9. If you could have dinner with any person (real or fictional, living or not), who would it be and why? (Please attach a separate piece of paper if necessary.)

10. How did you hear about this Fellowship? _____

11. This Fellowship requires a commitment of 2-3 hours per week, October-June with breaks for school holidays. In the fall semester the group will meet on Thursdays 4:00-6:00 PM. Are you available to make this time commitment? YES NO MAYBE

12. Do you have any questions or comments? _____

Applications are due September 15, 2017. Send the completed application to Elisa Kaplan, Deputy Executive Director for Programs at the Resilience Advocacy Project, at kaplan@resiliencelaw.org.