The Akha Children's Dream Home

A vision for the disenfranchised Akha tribe of Northern Thailand to live sustainably and preserve their cultural ways.

An Orphanage and Children's Home

The Akha hilltribe of Northern Thailand are amongst the country's most economically and socially disadvantaged.

When asked what their greatest need was, they said:
to support the children.

That is how our vision came to be.

Our Mission

With firm roots in trust and friendship, we are committed to the Akha tribe sustainably having:

- food
- clothing
- shelter
- access to employment & education for all generations to come

At the Akha Children's Dream Home, they will learn the Akha language, music, dance, and life practices. They will be encouraged to be proud of who they are. In turn, we too learn to be proud of who we are.

There's nothing like treating people with dignity after decades of disenfranchisement or offering kind gestures to those who face oppression.

All Donations are Tax-deductible

Sponsor a Child

For only $120/month, you can cover all a child's basic needs. All amounts make a difference. Consider sponsoring a child today. Get the chance to meet the child, with annual letters and live video chat, and change the course of an indigenous child's life!

The Akha Children's Dream Home is in a Fiscal Agency relationship with the Center for Sacred Studies, a 501(c)3 organization.

The Center for Sacred Studies is dedicated to sustaining ways of life based on collaboration and reciprocity with the Earth and all of her beings.
