

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

2023-24 Education & Community Engagement Annual Report

6,391 people served

77 FREE community & education events

58,279 virtual Masterclass Library views

58 radio broadcasts with All Classical and American Public Radio

52,926,800 listeners reached

2023-24 Year Round Series

2,507 people served and NEW community partners!

- THREE Education & Community Engagement Residencies:
 - Protégé Project alum violinist Anna Lee (October)
 - WindSync (February)
 - Mitch Lyon & Mika Sasaki (May)
- Artist-in-Residence Catalyst Quartet visits at two Hillsboro bilingual elementary schools, Bravo Youth Orchestras, hospital pop-up performance and coachings with Portland Youth Philharmonic & Portland State University
- Goldmund Quartet visit at Floyd Light Middle School
- Open Rehearsal + Musical Conversations during Beethoven Mini Festival in March
- Imani Winds visit to Grant High School band
- Three Prelude Performances at The Reser featuring local young musicians, and two in collaboration with BodyVox's Junior Artist Generator dancers.

2023-24 Community Engagement Residencies

Anna Lee, violin (Protégé Project Alum)

- Visit with Junior Orchestra of Yamhill County in collaboration with George Fox University
- Performance with Yoko Greeney at Rose Villa Senior Living
- Presentation with Metropolitan Youth Symphony
- Masterclass at Community Music Center

WindSync

- Sensory Friendly performance at The Judy in collaboration with PHAME and Hoof n' Horn Music Therapy
- Peter and the Wolf performances at Tualatin Public Library and Powell's
- Performance at Terwilliger Plaza

Multi-Year Community Engagement Residency – Year Three with the Lyon-Sasaki Duo

Engagements with SEVEN organizations, and 272 people!

- P:ear
- Blanchet House with SoundsTruck NW
- Westmoreland's Union Manor
- Raphael House
- PHAME
- Junior Orchestra of Yamhill County
- BRAVO Youth Orchestras

Plus, a community recital at Parklane Church!

The Beethoven Effect

2024 SUMMER FESTIVAL
JUNE 27 – JULY 28

3,884 people served this summer!

16 pop-up performances with YAI students at current and NEW community partner locations (including Powell's, Travel Portland, OMSI, Legacy Emanuel, and more!)

3 FREE YAI Community Showcases, with FOUR new commissions in partnership with Fear No Music's Young Composers Project

4 FREE Outdoor Community Concerts (North Portland w/ YAI, Milwaukie, Newberg and Vancouver)

4 Open Rehearsals

5 Masterclasses (viola, violin, percussion, composition and horn)

3 Musical Conversations with Caroline Shaw, Kyle Rivera and Jörg Widmann

10 Prelude Performances featuring YAI Students, and young musicians from community partner organizations