

20/20 Vision of Colombia is a non-profit organization which contributes toward social and integral development, investigation, interest in environment and technological advancement; conformed by an interdisciplinary work team, united as an energized group of volunteers who come from different social contexts and who contribute to the reconstruction of the social network, offering integral solutions to at-risk communities and to Colombians who wish to construct a better quality of life.

MISSION

Offer integral services and programs to at-risk communities and in general to Colombians who desire to build a better quality of life, generating opportunities for social and human advancement, and at the same time building alliances with organizations that support said communities by way of development of projects based on investigation and the use of modern technologies.