

GET TO KNOW RAP Programs

Empowering youth to lead the way towards social justice.

YOUTH VOICE NYC

A youth-led organizing initiative that trains youth to identify and develop citywide organizing campaigns focused on critical social issues affecting low-income youth in NYC.

YOUTH LEAP

Teaches youth about social justice issues through an exciting in-class curriculum focused on legal rights, civic engagement, and leadership development. These teens then design and launch a social justice project aimed at solving a real-world problem in their communities!

YOUNG FATHER- HOOD INITIATIVE

A project focused on improving educational and economic outcomes for low-income adolescent fathers within the city's welfare, workforce development and family court systems.
