

Prosperous Farming Families

Dear Donors,

We are very grateful for your continued support to the farming families, who are the protagonists of their own future with your help.

We have great news!

We have added new plantation areas and new families to our projects, we have also completed the implementation of projects such as Omacha Próspero and the 1096 families who are prosperous with a vision of the future, with self-esteem, with clean, tidy, beautiful and cozy homes, all this in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic and in compliance with preventive measures.

We are very happy with the results obtained, we are confident that the 1096 families will continue with the good practices improving day by day their living conditions and recovering the environment.

The new project areas will have an impact on 1597 families, in:

- District of Accha-Prov. Paruro -Cusco.
- District of Independencia-Prov. Vilcas Huamán-Ayacucho
- District of Capacmarca-Prov. Chumbivilcas-Cusco.
- Districts: Laraos, Alis, Tomas, Tinco, Huancachi- Yauyos-Lima Prov.
- District of Echarati-Prov. Convención-Cusco

The objective is to accelerate the recovery of degraded soils, while helping the villages, and the families living in them, to manage their natural resources in a sustainable way.

These families will sow prosperity for their families and the planet. The latest publications on climate change call for action. In Pachamama Raymi every day is important, every family, every tree adds to the great goal of caring for and protecting the future of our planet.

We have been negotiating agreements with the municipalities, initiating contests, training in forestation, healthy homes, taking care of the plants in the nurseries, taking firm steps together with the families to comply with the plan for the future.

Every day the actions and facts related to environmental recovery are more important and these families make it possible thanks to their support.

We are grateful to be in a situation that allows us to continue serving our community during this crisis.

We hope to continue counting on your generosity, and to continue Sowing Prosperity!

Help us with your donation to Sow Prosperity!

BLESSINGS
