Ibragim's story

In 2010, I contacted with bad company, started stealing, after some time I was caught by the police and sent to orphanage at the age of 11. I'm an orphan, i don't have father, my mother died when I was in the orphanage. I was 15 when I finished the institution and wanted to become a baker - cook. I like cooking, they gave me a place in the professional school, but study was difficult for me, there was nothing to eat, i didn't have passport. At the same time with studies, I worked to eat and dress up. It used to happen that after working for a month, I was not paid a salary. I do not like to tell people that I'm from an orphanage, because their attitude towards me changes immediately, they start to suspect that I will steal something, do bad things, hide things, it's so insulting that I really want to do something to them knowingly I was hated. At the moment I work in fast food, I cook for other people.
