STREET CHILDREN EMPOWERPOINT ORGANIZATION FOR DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Jonathan Kaitell

WHAT WE DO

We get street children from the streets, reintegrate them into homes as well as preventing the less privileged to enter the street. We engage development partners, national authorities, corporation, individuals and other relevant stakeholders on children development agendas. We provide health facilities, rehabilitation programs as well as organizing other forms of workshops to train street children. We provide access to quality education to street children. We provide reliable, relevant and responsible skills to street children to help them have easy access to employment. We help engage street children in national development.

BACKGROUND

Street Children Empowerment Organization for Developing Countries is a registered 501(c)(3) organization, contribution to which are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law. Information concerning Street Children Empowerment Organization including financial, licensing, or charitable purposes may be obtained without cost from its office: 2920 CHAPEL HILL RD APT 22D DURHAM. NC 27707, USA or KANIFING, MDI RD P.O.BOX 2947, SERREKUNDA, THE GAMBIA.

We exist to promote children empowerment in developing countries, serving as role models for strengthening and preserving the rights, privileges and capacities of children, the vulnerable ones in particular as a prelude to improving their living standards and participation in millennium development agendas of developing countries.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

MISSION

We are a non- profit organization taking children out of the street and developing their potential for sustainable community and national development in developing countries.

VISION

...that all children are cared for, stay healthy, spend their childhood in homes, educated and trained to contribute to nation development.

OUR BELIEFS

We believe that children have right to health, education and training. We believe that healthy, educated and trained children will improve living standards and drive sustainable development in developing countries...
