SAVE OUR SISTERS - ANTI HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Anti-human trafficking project that prevents and combats trafficking of women and children for sexual exploitation

Multi-faceted approach consists of:	Prevention	Prosecution	Protection	Policy Advocacy

In Nagpur and Sangli, successful convictions for those accused of trafficking of minor girls.

Save Our Sisters celebrated 16 days of activism which was joined by over 500 young women from urban and rural communities

Since inception, Save Our Sisters has reached out ot Over 1,00,000 People.

In the past year, the Save Our Sisters program has reached out to:

Protection

128 Survivors

650 young women

residing in vulnerable slum communities across Mumbai were provided with education and employability skills training

Prevention

More than 3850

Direct Beneficiaries

40000

Indirect Beneficiaries

Prosecution

Trained over

150

Stakeholders

largely from law enforcement and judiciary, Provided Legal Assistance and Representation to 80 survivors of sex trafficking

Policy Advocacy

Repatriated

102 Girls

Largely from Bangladesh, Uzbekistan & Thailand who were trafficked in India. Established interstate and intercountry coordination with 8 states & 3 countries respectively for smooth reintegration & repatriation of survivors of sex trafficking

This was achieved through interventions in:	10 community based centers	3 district offices (Nagpur, Sangli, Osmanabad)	Skills training for survivors of sex trafficking in 4 government-run shelter homes (Mumbai, Thane & Nagpur)

Invest in Change	Rehabilitation of survivors of sex trafficking ₹ 50,000 -70,000 each	Providing skills training opportunity of vulnerable young women ₹ 12,000 each	Strengthening capacities of stakeholder from Law Enforcement and Judiciary for combating crime of trafficking effectively ₹ 5,000

