Members of EWEI online were invited to participate in our E-Chat event titled Can Men Be Trusted Allies? (Why Should Men be Made Allies). This online event spanned conversations around making men allies in the fight for women's rights and gender equality.

The image shows a screenshot of a Facebook group page for "EWEI Online". The page is divided into three main sections: a left-hand navigation menu, a central post area, and a right-hand sidebar.

You know its that time of the month again, where we get to have intelligent conversations and invite panelist to have the conversation with us and this month I've got amazing guests for you all and cannot wait for you all to hear their thoughts. Our Topic? You know I always have juicy topics! We would be talking about 'Making Men Allies'. Should men be women's allies? if yes, why? if no, why? ... See more". Below the text is a graphic titled "Topic- Making Men Allies" featuring three circular portraits of panelists: Dinatu Emmanuel Ishaku (Founder of Kasham Initiatives), Saliyya Muhammad Daba (Lead for Women Tech-makers Initiative, Kano), and Dan Auta Melvin Amta (Civil Engineer). Text: "Digital technologies have become a powerful force for social and economic development, delivering substantial benefits for both, individuals and society. However, there remains a significant 'digital gender gap' that must be addressed to ensure that women are not being left behind. Women's participation in the information society is constrained by two main factors: too many women face barriers to access and use of digital technologies; and, underpinning this, too few".

Right-hand sidebar:

- Visibility: Visible (Anyone can find this community)
- General: (Community settings)
- Recent media: A grid of images including "Stay Safe" posters, a photo of two children, and a "FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES" graphic.

Also, members were invited for EWEI digital event to mark the International Day of the Girl Child, with virtual digital games and activities.

Popular times

The average number of times members post, comment or react at a given hour of the day in the specified date range.

CHALLENGES

The major challenge is low engagement by members on the page. In addition, we are still yet to reach our target number of memberships on the page (300 members).

MITIGATION

To address the challenge of low engagement, we continued sharing educational resources and videos to engage the EWEI Online members, alongside funding opportunities. We also started sharing fun facts, making polls and sharing riddles to promote interactivity among members. To address the challenge of low membership, we shared the link to the page during EWEI events and encourage women and girls we interact with to become members.

NEXT STEPS

Moving forward, we will continue to adopt the cross-posting methods. That is, we will regularly post information regarding EWEI Online on all EWEI's social media platforms encouraging ladies to join the page, engage in polls, post riddles and ask questions to promote interactivity.

We will also organise facebook live events to discuss with members, engage in educative and fun activities, and also get their opinions on topics they will want to engage on.
