

Empower Colombian leaders
through higher education

YOUR DONATION
MAKES BIG CHANGES

Currently, many things have changed in the world

Jobs, people's health, human interactions, routines, the way of learning, the economy of countries, among others.

But despite the new circumstances, education remains a priority for millions of young people around the world.

Many do not have the financial resources to fulfill their dream of studying and that is why, through the Foundation, we want to help them.

We have good news!

This year, six young people from Quibdó, Chocó, received one of the best news of their lives, by receiving a scholarship to do their graduate studies.

These new scholarship recipients stood out for their commitment and desire to train academically to contribute to their communities and improve their communities.

We give new scholarships

They are young people convinced that, through education, they can achieve better living conditions.

5 scholarship holders will study Management of Psychosocial Processes and 1 will study Research Methods and Techniques in the Social Sciences.

The new knowledge they will learn will allow them to positively impact their personal and work life and improve the social projects they develop.
