Fundación JP GC

15 years working for Colombia

15 years working for the education of the country

The Juan Pablo Gutiérrez Cáceres Foundation grants scholarships to young Colombians with limited resources so they can continue their postgraduate studies in Colombia.

WE LOVE COLOMBIA

In alliance with 16 universities in the country, 520 scholarships have been awarded nationwide and 311 scholarship students have graduated in different areas of knowledge.

The Foundation scholarship students has a social profile and is characterized by their leadership, love for their country and because they are interested in developing projects of a different nature that positively impact their community or environment.

We work with various sources of income to continue supporting education

Throughout the 15 years of work, the Foundation has had different sources of funding:

1. Donations from national companies.
2. Donations from direct natural persons or through the electronic teller machines of Banco Scotia Bank Colpatria and Banco de Bogotá.
3. Allied universities (by means of agreements, the percentage of economic contribution that they contribute for the scholarships is established).
4. Allies: foundations, NGOs or companies that contribute resources for the joint delivery of scholarships.
5. Events: Gala Dinner and Golf Tournament
6. Chocó to Dance Project
7. Refund of students
8. Sale of products
