

Inspired by the Stop the Silence media Campaign, Stop the Silence Presents:

A new and original play by Scottish playwright and actor Matthew McVarish

The Kelpie is widely known as a devious monster lurking in the depths of Scottish highland lochs. A Kelpie is a gentle inviting creature, patiently waiting to capture and devourer any unsuspecting persons who come too close.

But with no real proof of his actual existence, does this demon only really exist within the minds of cruel men and scared children?

A play about two brothers, who, after living with a secret since their boyhood, divulge the truth to each other.

Showing soon in a local theatre near you.

Don't miss this extraordinary theatre experience with after-show discussion.

Produced in Scotland to rave reviews and brought to the stage in the U.S. under a grant from Health and Human Services and private donations.
