Good day All

Please see attached for August. I do apologize for this being so late. The last 2 weeks have been horribly busy. I'm pleased to say all my exams are over, including my own Diploma exam yesterday!

It has been an extraordinary week! On Wednesday Celimfundo Choir made history by taking the ABRSM Choral Examination (Initial) at DBCS. It was a resounding success, after much concern that we would be ready. The examiner was fighting back tears, and although it will take til around November before we have the results, I was assured that the exam went well.

Furthermore, Bernard then invited the choir to perform at the concert, where we were extremely well received by the audience. The Legacy Project really shone. I was surprised to see Nathi Ndlovu in attendance, and Poppy Moekwena attended as well, though I didn't get to speak to her. Chris Ndlovu (Celimfundo Pincipal) also attended the concert, and this was a wonderful moment for these guests to see the children shining on that stage. We are grateful that we had this opportunity, thank you. There has been great interest from many parties around this exam, and I look forward to seeing further developments unfolding. And of course, the children were riveted by the Drakies performance. What a great experience for them to attend the concert. They were due to leave at interval to avoid returning home in the dark, but all agreed that they would stay for the full duration of the concert, with Chris Ndlovu making this call.

I'm also very pleased to report that I have started giving Lynn Sclanders voice lessons, and mentoring her with regards to choirs. Charlotte has been taking voice lessons from Jenny Matthews, and did her ABRSM Gr 4 singing exam yesterday. This ensures we have local music teachers who are skilled in singing to take over the choirs. I feel like its high fives all round this week!!

Kind regards
Judith
