

In honor of the Global Youth Service Days and Days of Interfaith Youth Service

INTERFAITH YOUTH Service INITIATIVE

APRIL 25-26, 2009

SATURDAY, APRIL 25

9:00 am-2:00 pm

So Others Might Eat (SOME)

*Zagami House
1701 19th Street, SE
Washington, DC*

Earth Conservation Corps (ECC)

*Anacostia River Park
(work site TBD)*

- Join area youth groups in a split project to pick up trash along the Anacostia River or for light landscaping to prepare a family park area at a local shelter. Following service, groups will reunite for lunch and dialogue.
- 40 youth needed

10:00 am-2:00 pm

All Dulles Area Muslim Society (ADAMS)

*46903 Sugarland Drive
Sterling, Virginia*

- Join members of the ADAMS youth group to prepare lunches for area homeless shelters. Following service, volunteers will gather for an outdoor lunch to discuss plans for an interfaith community garden and Peace Trail
- 20 youth needed

SUNDAY, APRIL 26

12:00 pm-4:00 pm

B'nai B'rith

Homecrest House

*14508 Homecrest Rd
Silver Spring, Maryland*

- Participate in "Green" initiatives at this retirement home for active seniors with limited income. Projects include a CFL light-bulb exchange and garden/ greenhouse clean-up at this retirement home for low income. Volunteers are invited to stay for a party with the residents.
- 20 youth needed

sponsored by

The Institute for Faith & Service

all volunteers should dress appropriately for yard work and bring sunblock and bug spray lunch and interfaith dialogue included for all all projects to sign up, email Meg Poole at meg@911unitywalk.org or call (314) 910-7012