

Project Documentation

The theme of the project is: “Empowering 250 At-Risk Rural Girls in Nigeria”. The timeline for the project is six (6) months and during this period, each of these 250 at-risk young girls will undergo counseling and sensitization exercise to enable them see the need to keep off the streets and become skilled in any of the training courses. The project will seek to empower and build the skills and knowledge of these 250 at-risk young girls, who are victims of girl-child and forced labour in rural villages and communities within the five states of South-Eastern region of Nigeria. The project will engage and advance their knowledge and skills in various skill-acquisition programs that will create the enabling platform for their sustainable future engagement. Finally, it will take these girls off the streets and transform them into private entrepreneurs with a better future. Finally, during the project timeline, these girls will be entitled to training kits at the cost of $10 each. These will be preceded by the enrolment of the girls for three (3) month training at the cost of $50 each. At the end of the training, each of the girls will be issued a course certificate and start-off utensils at the cost of $70 each.
