Madeit! Foundation has an atmosphere for young adults that includes social media and popular culture. With social media presence becoming an even bigger factor in finding a job, it's important to teach the proper ways to use it. Madeit! Foundation recognizes this factor and wants to help this group change the world.

About Us

Madeit! Foundation is a supplemental support for career services. We offer one-on-one mock interviews, employee wellness, leadership skills, and branding sessions.

Our vision is to help create a world where everyone has an equal opportunity to secure sustainable employment. By obtaining the skill set necessary to pursue a career of their choosing; and are knowledgeable on the many career options available. We offer the support systems needed to help them access their goals.

With more than 12% of emerging adults in the US describing themselves as depressed, it provides a deeper look at the expectations and lack of clear pathways for these groups. Of those 12% about 23% of those adults were unemployed. This shows that unemployed emerging adults are twice as likely to suffer from depression.

Madeit! Foundation wants to help address this issue by creating a supportive environment for vulnerable populations.
