

Sebowajab investments limited work with village savings and loans associations VSLAs by educating them the benefit of shifting from traditional three stone open fire cooking methods to improved cook stoves. In the picture our one of our groups meeting to contribute their weekly savings.

Our field officer training community members on the importance of using dual improved cook stoves which help them save income and encouraging them to form VSLA groups to ease our work of donating the cook stove to every member of the group.