- ✓ Achieve maximum personal independence through participation in sports, artistic, cultural and recreational activities that favor their social inclusion.
- ✓ Generate a space of containment and family counseling that allows to build support networks, share problems and generate creative proposals for the resolution of conflicts.

The participants of the Day Center carry out different activities related to inclusion, activities of daily life, socialization and family support. In addition, proposals are developed in coordination with other activities of the organization.

INCLUSIVE FOOTBALL LEAGUE

The Inclusive Football League is a sports football movement for people with and without disabilities created by Andar in 1998. From the league, we use football to develop values, equal opportunities and contribute to the construction of an inclusive society.

The mission of the Inclusive Football League is to develop community spaces for the participation of people with disabilities and the use of football as a tool for transformation and social inclusion. The league is currently taking place in the province of Buenos Aires, the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, Mendoza, Rio Negro, Tucumán, Misiones and Jujuy.

As for the League of Buenos Aires, organized by the Asociación Civil Andar, this 20th season had the participation of 900 players in 135 teams from 44 institutions in 30 districts between the Province of Buenos Aires and the Autonomous City. All this activity is supported by the efforts of 120 volunteers.

In addition, this project transcended the borders of our country and today is replicated in Colombia, Chile and Peru. In order to promote this international development in 2014, we have been founders of the International Network of Soccer and Art for Inclusion, with organizations from the mentioned countries.

Inclusive Football Schools:

The project was created to increase the opportunities that children with disabilities have for the development of their potential.

The inclusive football school uses games as a factor to develop the capacities of boys and girls, contributing to the generation of bonds and the reduction of stereotypes or prejudices, allowing people to recognize, accept, tolerate and discover themselves as active agents of change.

Participate in the activity of children and adolescents with and without disabilities from Moreno schools.
