6- Additional information

- What is the problem

In Cameroon, there are more than 681,512 internally displaced persons among which 62,500 children are out-of-school due to the socio-political and insecurity crisis in the nothern and two english-speaking regions according to UN Office for Humanitarian Affairs. Those displaced children are at risk of illiteracy and hunger,as their basic rights are not guaranteed in their host communities.This projet will affect more than 200 children in KOUTABA where they reside as internally displaced persons.

- How will this project solve the problem?

This project will provide classrooms, english teachers, books, school materials and food to internally displaced children in order to improve their well-being and to ensure their right to education. Besides, extracurricular activities such as christmas tree celebrations will be organized at the end of each year for the children fulfilment.

- Potential long-term impact

The project will educate 200 internally deplaced children allowing them to succeed in life and facilitate their integration in the society. Also it will improve their well-being and their participation in the development of Cameroon.
