About us

We train social entrepreneurs in Colombia's most vulnerable communities.

Despite having limited access to education and capital, many hard-working women are passionate and capable of addressing local needs. They just need the right guidance.

Our program teaches them how to build sustainable businesses and become successful leaders.

With your support, a low-income entrepreneur can follow her dream while creating sustainable social and environmental impact.

How can you help?

For 1 USD/day (365$ in total), you can sponsor an entrepreneur's training and mentoring for a full year. You will also have an opportunity to meet her, learn about the process and give her advice.

If you can´t commit to being a full sponsor but would still like to contribute, any donation is hugely useful & greatly appreciated.

What's the process?

1. Scan the QR code and donate using your prefered method and frecuency (monthy or yearly).

2. As soon as we have 25 sponsors, you will be matched with an entrepreneur and introduced to her.

3. See how she thrives and becomes a leader in her community. You will also be invited to a field trip and her pitch presentation! 🥹

FAQ

Is Todos Podemos a serious organization?

Yes, we are a registered Non-Profit, which reports to the State of Antioquia annually to maintain its status. We are also part of networks & plateforms that vet all aspiring members before letting them in (Red de Impacto Latam, GlobalGiving...).

How do I know this will work?

We have trained over 100 low-income entrepreneurs in Colombia – mostly women – of which 80% have been able to sell their products & services within 3 months of their training.

Why women?

Worldwide studies show that investing in women positively impacts their families and communities. Additionally, women's economic participation contributes to overall economic growth. From our experience in Colombia, women have much higher participation and success rates than men.

Can you share an example of an entrepreneur you have worked with?

Of course! Please check the page or scan the QR code. :)

I have a different question. Can I speak with someone?
