FEBRUARY 2023

GLOBAL GIVING REPORT

Global Changers

It's exciting and maybe even a little frightening. . .

2023 is already here, and we are almost two months into the new year!

You know what this means: we are all attempting to set goals to achieve this year, or better known as our New Year's Resolutions. Two key points that may help you in achieving your goals are to make them measurable and realistic.

Most importantly, one must always celebrate their success! Staying positive and looking back at what you have accomplished can really go a long way.

As for our team here at Global Changemakers, we would like to personally share our gratitude for your continuous support throughout the years. Your support actively changes the lives of many and encourages the spread of positivity for a brighter future.

It is worth highlighting that we closed 2022 with our big and exciting project: The Annual Report. A dedicated report to look back and see how much we accomplished in just a year. Some highlights from our year are listed below:

January: Global webinar in collaboration with UNESCO

February: Cycle 7 of the Mentorship Programme

April: Virtual Youth Summit, Latin America

May: Launch of the call for applications for the North American Grants in collaboration with the Shawn Mendes Foundation

June: Awareness and resources campaign celebrating PRIDE

August: International Youth Day Twitter Chat and the release of Season 4 of the podcast

September: Youth Engagement workshop for Price Waterhouse Cooper Zurich

November: Global Launch of our FREE Ecology for Changemakers Course at the 17th UNFCCC Conference of the Youth Workshop in collaboration with YouthLead

December: Giving Season Fundraising campaign

in 2022, we were able to fund 25 youth-led projects that have positively impacted over 100,000 people in over 190 countries.

Anyway, we don't want to simply make a copy of the report in this February update, so why don't you get a cup of coffee and take some minutes to check the annual report by yourself?

Despite the hardships endured through the pandemic, our global impact has only been made possible through our collaborators, contributors, and volunteers.

Again, we humbly thank you for your support and wish you the best luck in 2023.

Sincerely,

Global Changemakers Team.
