"I think that we all have something to contribute, all of us, because we are human, we are very valuable, and it is good to recognize the work of others. I really enjoyed rethinking everything that others do for me. It helps me to see so many good things that are around me and so many riches that I have and sometimes forget".

– Dr. María Guadalupe Badillo
Hospital Materno Infantil de Guadalajara