

Dear valued supporters of the Virgin Islands Children's Museum,

We are thrilled to share with you the exciting news that the VICM is embarking on a holiday season filled with art exploration activities for children and families both inside and outside the museum doors. Thanks to your generous donations and ongoing support, we are able to continue offering engaging arts and humanities projects that inspire creativity and learning in our young visitors.

Throughout the holiday season, we will be leading art and humanities projects during our Toddler Tuesday and Teen Time programming, providing opportunities for children of all ages to express themselves through various artistic mediums. Additionally, we are excited to announce that we will be hosting High Schoolers Read-Aloud and craft time with the Eudora Kean Rays Book Club, as well as Chanukah storytime and crafts with Rabbi Margolis.

In addition to our in-house programming, we will also be participating in outreach events such as the Tillet Garden's Holiday Bazaar and the Sib's Christmas Bazaar, where children will have the opportunity to color, craft, practice scissor skills, and paste to decorate paper Christmas trees, Chanukah menorahs, and Kwanzaa Mishumaa Saba candles. These events provide a wonderful opportunity for children to engage in hands-on art activities and connect with their community in a meaningful way.

We are incredibly grateful for your continued support of our ongoing Art Exploration Global Giving Campaign Art Exploration Campaign #49363, which allows us to provide these enriching experiences for children and families in our community. Your generosity truly makes a difference in the lives of those we serve, and we are honored to have you as part of our VICM family.

Thank you for your dedication to our mission and for your ongoing commitment to the Virgin Islands Children's Museum. We look forward to sharing more updates with you as we continue to inspire creativity and learning through art exploration.

Warm regards,

Virgin Islands Children's Museum Team
