ACHIEVEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD UNDER REVIEW:

2.1 Learning Squared Liberia Offers LRD 50,000.00 Scholarship to Ann Sandell Independent School

During the month under review, Learning Squared Liberia provided a generous scholarship tuition payment of LRD 50,000.00 (USD272.00) to the Ann Sandell Independent School in Montserrado County Liberia. This tuition payment covers ten students' partial tuition fees for academic 2023/2023. Students benefiting for this gesture are in grades 1 to 6th at the abovementioned school. The initiative was highly appreciated by both families and students.

During a brief ceremony hosted by Learning Squared Liberia, the finance officer of Learning Squared Mr. Valentine M. Padmore, presented the check to the school's authorities. He expressed gratitude to the school for its quality education and highlighted the importance of collaboration between students, parents, and institutions.

For his part, the principal of that institution Mr. Boimah Yoryor, warmly welcomed the gesture and assured Learning Squared that the funds will significantly enhance the school's teaching resources. In addition to this, beneficiaries of this gesture received copy books, pencil and book bags to enhance their smooth learning.

2.2 4th Annual Back-To-School Book Ride Distribution

Learning Squared is excited to announce the continuation of its upcoming 4th Annual Back-To-School Book Ride Distribution, which is expected to take place in Margibi and Bomi counties, Liberia. This books distribution will include two schools in Margibi, and two schools in Bomi Counties.

2.2 Recommendation and Conclusion

Thanks, and appreciation to our supporters, donors, Global Giving, Local communities, and school for the level of commitment shown toward the successful implementation of the project. Learning Squared Liberia is open to working with all children of Liberia, Mostly the under-privilege children in rural Liberia.
