

Participants Grade Report

Term #: 105 Saturday, April 10, 2021 to Wednesday, May 05, 2021

Mr. Anwar Ahmed Al-Nesairy

Thursday, May 06, 2021 12:58:37 PM

Concern Organization for Women & Children

Fax Number:

ID#	Student Name	Level	Start Time	Attendance	Hours Absent	Grade	Result
047886	Abdulghani Awad Aiedh	Fundamental B	1:00 PM	92%	4	91.0	Satisfactory

Abdulghani is an intelligent student. He made excellent progress in improving his oral, reading, and writing skills. He has the ability to grasp difficult information and has the potential to master English. Good job!

047890	Aref Badr Al-Shami	Low Intermediate A	1:00 PM	86%	7	82.0	Satisfactory
--------	--------------------	--------------------	---------	-----	---	------	--------------

Aref was a very good student who participated regularly in class activities. His listening skills were fair, but he needs to focus on his writing skills, especially spelling, subject-verb agreement, and punctuation. He also needs to work on his speaking skills, especially fluency and pronunciation.

047884	Khaled Mohammed Al-Fakih	Fundamental A	1:00 PM	96%	2	80.0	Satisfactory
--------	--------------------------	---------------	---------	-----	---	------	--------------

Khaled is a very good student. His oral skills were very good. Yet, the student has to focus on his pronunciation. In reading, he was very good. As for his writing, he performed well; however, he needs to avoid missing words when writing sentences.

047888	Marzoq Hashem Sufyan	Fundamental D	1:00 PM	88%	6	76.0	Satisfactory
--------	----------------------	---------------	---------	-----	---	------	--------------

Marzoq is a thoughtful and outspoken student. He has strived to develop his current language skills by participating and performing well in class. However, his reading skills require extra efforts in order to be enhanced. As for his writing skills, he has shown a bit of progress, yet he should focus on punctuation and word choice. Furthermore, as for his oral skills, he ought to pay more attention to pronunciation and proper grammar use.

047887	Mohammed Abdullah Al-Fakih	Fundamental D	1:00 PM	84%	8	77.0	Satisfactory
--------	----------------------------	---------------	---------	-----	---	------	--------------

Mohammed was a great student. He has developed his writing and listening skills. However, he must work hard on his sentence structure and accuracy. In speaking, he must participate more in the classroom and speak more in every speaking activity in order to get the hoped results.

047885	Mohammed Yahya Adaed	Fundamental B	1:00 PM	86%	7	87.0	Satisfactory
--------	----------------------	---------------	---------	-----	---	------	--------------

Even though Mohammed had a punctuality problem, he tried his best to catch up with his classmates. His language skills are improving impressively. He is advised to keep up the hard work next term.

Algiers Street, Sana'a - Republic of Yemen

Phone: +967-1-537 871/2/3

Fax: +967-1-537 876

contact@exceededucation.org

www.exceededucation.org