We cannot tire to thank our Main Friend Daniela of Nike company, the lady who single handedly brought our organization to GlobalGiving. She has given as a life and through her a number of her colleagues and friends have supported us. We also thank BENEVITY, a platform through which Nike employees contribute and it is matched. We remain so humbled.

TFEC remains sincerely humbled by our donors and we appreciate each act of humanity shown. We promise to remain on our course to truly change lives of the needy children. This is our plea.

Thanks very much.
