	The follow-up activities consist of Micro-Meetings (MMs: counselling sessions in small groups), Micro-Teachings (MTs: during which participants learn how to 'pass on their message' to and/or hold 'helping talks' with others), and household education visits by participants in their neighbourhoods.
	Besides co	mmunity educative purposes	s the latter has shown to also	help participants buil	d their self-esteem a	nd appreci	ation by the community. Visit	s are KAP-guided.
There also are One-on-One Counselling Sessions, Guided Education Sessions (community education in groups), whilst the cycle is completed by assessment and graduation
	For those i	nterested (usually the major	ity) an ADVANCED COURSE of	1 year continuous ed	ucation and activities	is offered	, and repeated for additional	year(s) according to ne
