Empowering young entrepreneurs in low-income countries
Our mission is to empower young entrepreneurs in low-income countries to bring the change they envision.
Mkono is a Canadian microfinance non-profit organization supporting entrepreneurs in Kenya

What we do

We are a registered Canadian non-profit organization that connects people around the world to share capital and global insights to empower young entrepreneurs in low-income countries and achieve lasting change.

How we do it

We partner with local organizations - incubators, accelerators, and mentorship programs - to effectively deliver our services by sourcing the most promising businesses, promoting loan repayment, and supplementing their local support.

Why we do it

In Sub-Saharan countries, small and medium business owners lack access to adequate financial resources despite an increasing number of lenders. By facilitating access to affordable capital and mentorship, we give entrepreneurs a real chance at creating positive change.
Business owners in Kenya are faced with limited and flawed financing options

- Commercial banks: Bureaucratic and reluctant to make riskier loans due to lack of collateral.
- Micro-lending platforms: High interest rates (up to 200% APR); often targeting individuals instead of businesses.
- Family & friends: Limited availability of funds; puts financial stress on relatives.
- Microfinance institutions: Risk averse due to pooled funds, preventing moderate risk-taking necessary for business growth.
We take a holistic approach: combining the benefits of traditional micro-lending and mentorship to achieve maximum impact

Loans
Capital, generously provided by individual donors and corporate sponsors, is granted to entrepreneurs in the form of affordable loans. Loan repayment increases the capital’s impact and creates a multiplier effect.

Mentorship
Insights are shared by Mkono Allies, a global network of young professionals with relevant experience, with the entrepreneurs in the form of targeted mentorship calls.
Meet Lornah

Lornah is a Nairobi-based entrepreneur who owns a fashion business that employs 6 people.

Lornah received and repaid 2 loans, totalling over CAD$2,000, allowing her to finance new orders, launch a new clothing collecting, and implement her marketing strategy to boost sales.

Her 2 mentorship sessions helped her improve her online marketing activities during COVID.

“I was stuck in terms of financing. Most bank institutions are stringent and take quite a lot of time. Everything was perfect about Mkono’s process.”

“One thing raised during the mentorship session was that clients want to be involved with a brand with a story.”

“I am really grateful for what Mkono has done so far... This has changed my life, my company, and the life of my employees.”

2020 impact report key themes

Improved cash flow and pricing

“Before, I was reinvesting into the business and didn’t pay myself a monthly salary. We’ve implemented measures (e.g., down payment) and feel more at ease with our finances.”

Vertical integration

“[The loan] has helped us do everything in house. We are able to check the quality of the job. Before, 50% of the time, we had issues with material, finishing, lost shipment, and issues with timelines. Now, we have a dedicated contractor doing this.”

Business pivot

From helping an entrepreneur make use of photography to document the impact of COVID-19 to assisting others implement an online store, as attested by an entrepreneur, “Mkono did not jump to conclusions and unsolicited advice”.

Marketing and branding

“We’ve fully increased our online presence [through a new website]. We started getting clients […]. This is really helping us out.”
