WHO ARE WE?

Started in the year 2005, The Foundation for Social Transformation: enabling north east india (FST) is an indigenous philanthropic organization that has transformed lives having created a cadre of change agents in marginalized rural and urban communities establishing a culture of community giving to form social justice and built a strong network of grass-root groups in NE India.

VISION OF SUCCESS

Entrenched in the principles of social and gender justice, FST's vision is to enable communities in North East India to be free from fear, discriminations and violence.

FST's vision is anchored on the aspirations of the people of the North East region and in their active participation in the social transformation process.

FST is an indigenous philanthropic organization that transforms lives by creating cadres of change agents in marginalized rural and urban communities, establishing a culture of community giving for social justice and building a strong network of grass-root groups in NE India.

TARGET GROUPS

- Youth are progressive, conscious and critical thinkers and are taking assertive action for positive change in communities
- Women are recognized as custodians and nurturers of natural resources, holders of knowledge, deeply connected with mother earth. Women are collectivized and a cadre of women leaders assert and uphold progressive women's agency at different levels.
- Marginalized Groups across NE India are organised into issue based collectives, with a cadre of leaders and change makers who continuously assert and engage with authorities and the public for correcting power imbalances and inequalities

THEMATIC AREAS

Rural & Informal Economy
