

My story

My name is one of students.

I am in grade seven in school and 13 years old and right now I am one of the students supported by Bamyan Foundation. I really want to continue to my education in this kind of situation that we have in Afghanistan, I really want to be educated and help my family and community.

In fact without Bamyan Foundation it was not possible for to continue my education up grade six, and I am really happy that such as support and found. About the quality of my lessons I am really satisfied from my teachers and school that provide this opportunities for all the girls and has a good classrooms, teachers and a friendly environment for study our lesson the teacher are really kind and friendly a good discipline.

Be a doctor is my dream and goals for future.

And at the end I want to appreciate and thanks from my Bamyan Foundation and my school to provide this kind of opportunity for me and other my classmates.

Best regards
