About Special Needs in Israel

- Israeli Ministry of Health: 10 percent of children are diagnosed with significant developmental delays
- Over 200,000 children with special needs in Israel
- In low socio-economic municipalities, the proportion of children with disabilities is 11% versus 7.7% of the total population of children
- The proportion of children with disabilities is higher in Arab municipalities vs. Jewish ones: 8.3% vs. 7.6%
- This is an underestimate due to the lack of an appropriate system for ID and diagnosis of certain disabilities in the Arab sector
- The number of children who need services is two to three times greater than those who receive services

Chimes Daycare Centers

- Operates five Rehabilitative Daycare Centers containing 3-4 classrooms
- Centers located in Modi'in, Ashkelon, Tel Aviv-Jaffa and Holon
- For babies and preschool children with developmental delays, physical disabilities and complex medical issues
- Serve over 170 infants and toddlers ages six months to three years
- Playgrounds are adapted to the children's developmental, gross motor, fine motor, social, communication, sensory and cognition needs
- The daily routine includes playtime, outdoor activities, birthday and holiday celebrations, music classes, and more.

Chimes Daycare Center Services

- Developmental rehabilitation, paramedical and educational services
