Donate for Cloths and Cosmetics to Oldage poor Women India

2. What will this Micro Project Change ?

It is known to your esteemed organization at many of the grandparents facing lot of problems today in the society. During the younger stage all parents rendered meritorious services to their children future development. All the parents are spending all there are needs, assets for the prosperities and development of their children. All the parents are always thinking for the best future of their children. But, at the Oldage they are unable to work and earn amount and expecting food and basic needs from their children. But, it is not accepted their children and their life partner. Consequently, grandparents are facing mental agony, humiliation and other problems. Thus, they are migrating from their villages to the nearest towns and urban areas with lot mental strain and tears for begging money, food and eatable items leading measurable and sympathetic life. They are living in Railway Stations, Bus stations, Temples and Churches etc. These people are frequently are victimizing for various type of common communicable and chronic diseases. Consequently, they are unable to go for begging and getting other food items. Thus, they are victimizing for death. Hence, Community Organising for Rural Upliftment Society (CORUS) has been observed all the problems and they have collected 30 grandparents from the Kurnool town and other nearest rural villages and admitted them in our Oldage Home. We are providing daily Food, Shelter and care by the help of Donors and other humanitarians. But, the main problem is facing, we are unable to Cloths and Cosmetics items such as Soaps, Hair oil, Comb, Paste, Powder and other Cosmetics to our grandparents. Hence, we humbly requesting to your nobility kindly provide financial support for 30 grandparents (Oldage Women) for Cloths and Cosmetics etc. Thus, they can need good life, protect from severe cold and various type of seasonal diseases.
