The "Warm heart of Africa" is an apt name for Malawi, for it is the people who are Malawi. It is the amazing resilience of a people hit with all sorts of tragedies - Poverty, disease, droughts, floods and of course the Big One "AIDS" and yet the place remains a place of laughter. It is everywhere, it comes to you from across the plains, through the gaps in the mountains, it is in the air that you breathe, seeping through all its tragedies.
