3. CHUNHUI CARE HOME PROGRAM STORY

Yi is a clever and adorable little girl. Whenever Hu Mama sings nurse rhymes while doing rhythmic exercises, she also sings and exercises along with her. Yi's imitation ability is quite strong. As long as she observes Hu Mama singing and dancing a new song for three times, she can sing and dance on her own.

Yi practices pronunciation with Hu Mama everyday. Whenever Hu Mama takes out play cards, Yi would sit next to Hu Mama. When Hu Mama flips and shows the cards while reading, she would repeat and practice Pinyin pronunciations, phrases, and sentences. And Hu Mama would promptly correct her pronunciation habits if any. Through daily practice she is now able to proficiently say short sentences.

In addition to actively participating in rehabilitation training, she has also learned and developed good daily habits. Every morning when she wakes up, she goes to the restroom to wash her face and brush her teeth by herself. And after finishing meals, she washes up her bowl and spoon and put them back to cupboard.

Yi has already learned many words and nursery rhymes. Whenever she is happy, she sings loudly. I hope little Yi can grow up healthily and happily in the future.
